A Letter from the President

Each year the Seattle Seahawks strive to be a championship-caliber team both on and off the field, and 2022 was no exception. As we reflect on the past year, we would like to thank the 12s, our corporate partners, and the greater Pacific Northwest for their tremendous dedication and support of our community engagement initiatives.

As an organization, we remain committed to furthering numerous programs focused in the key areas of youth empowerment, the military community, social justice, community response, and the future of football.

In 2022, our team is proud to have supported nearly 300 community events, impacting over 72,000 individuals. Overall, our organization supported $2.5 million in cash donations and over 32,000 in-kind items donated to more than 200 organizations.

Highlights from 2022 include:

- The growth of flag football continues to be a top focus area for our organization, with $250,000 committed over the next five years to support girls flag football programs in the state of Washington. As a result of our efforts, more than 30 high schools locally now have girls flag teams to date, as we strive toward our ultimate goal of girls flag becoming a sanctioned varsity sport in the state of Washington. The team also continues to support the Seahawks Flag Football league in partnership with NFL Flag.
- General Manager John Schneider was recognized as our nominee for the 2022 NFL Salute to Service Award for his ongoing efforts to support members of the military and veterans, which includes inviting over 700 Military Service Members to Seahawks home games. As a whole, the team continues to support, engage and celebrate members of the military community through a variety of programs, recognition and events throughout the year, including providing veteran support through our Task Force 12 non-profit organizations.
- Fan support of our in-game Seahawks 50/50 Raffle resulted in $425,000 in donations to our Spirit of 12 Partners, including a match from the Paul G. Allen Family Foundation.
- The team supported Seattle Public Schools' WHOLE Mentoring program through mentorship and shadowing opportunities at Microsoft, Virginia Mason Franciscan Health and Lumen Field for 50 black male students in partnership with Office of African American Male Achievement.
- We continue to recognize the positive impact of our players and Legends, including support for The Seahawks Players Equality & Justice for All Action Fund. The fund has now granted $1.5M to a variety of organizations that are working to create lasting change and build a more compassionate and inclusive society.
- In the spirit of 12s everywhere, our vast network of Sea Hawkers fan groups generously donated over $463,000 and volunteered over 20,000 hours in their communities around the world.

We remain humbled and honored to be part of such a giving community. Thank you for your generosity and unwavering support of the Seahawks and our beloved region.

JOHN SCHNEIDER

EXECUTIVE VP/GENERAL MANAGER

John Schneider enters his 14th season as General Manager of the Seattle Seahawks, having been named to the position on January 19, 2010. Schneider added the distinction of Executive Vice President in 2013. In his role, he manages all aspects of the Seahawks roster and draft process while working collaboratively with Executive VP/Head Coach Pete Carroll in all facets of the football operations department. Schneider begins his 31st season working in the professional ranks in 2023.

Schneider's philosophy is one primarily focused on building through the draft while making strategic acquisitions via trade and free agency that foster a competitive culture through a mix of youthful playmakers and veteran leadership. He continues to build and maintain a younger roster that breeds a sustained championship caliber atmosphere.

The signs of that philosophy have been evident during the last decade-plus, advancing to the Divisional Playoffs or better seven times. He has constructed a team that appeared in back-to-back Super Bowls and won Super Bowl XLVIII, the first NFL title in franchise history. The 2013 championship was won with the youngest 53-man roster to ever win a Super Bowl. He was named Sports Illustrated's Executive of the Year for 2012 after the Seahawks made the playoffs and just missed playing for the NFC Championship.

Together with Carroll, the Seahawks have compiled the fifth-best record in the NFL since 2010 with a 128-81-1 mark and is one of seven teams to win at least 125 games over that span. The club posted 10-plus wins in five-consecutive seasons (2012-16) for the first time in franchise history, including eight of the last 11 seasons, and won five NFC West Division titles.

Schneider has continued to turn the roster over since 2010, totaling more than 3,300 transactions prior to the 2023 season, helping to cultivate depth on one of the NFL's most talented rosters.

He and his personnel department were awarded the 2022 Best Draft Award by Inside the League founder Neil Stratton at the 2023 combine, an award voted on by fellow scouts and personnel members. The 2022 class featured seven players who made significant contributions on offense, defense or special teams, including five starters: Coby Bryant, Charles Cross, Abraham Lucas, Kenneth Walker III and Tariq Woolen. Woolen was a finalist for AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, while Walker was a finalist for Offensive Rookie of the Year. Lucas and Cross became the first rookie tackle duo to start a team's first 15 games since the 1970 merger, while Seattle ranked second in the NFL in games started by rookies (70) and offensive and defensive snaps played by rookies (4,868).

Schneider's 2012 draft class was regarded as a failure outside Seahawks headquarters but was one that produced potential Hall of Famers in Bobby Wagner, Russell Wilson, and foundational pieces in draftees Bruce Irvin, Jeremy Lane and J.R. Sweezy. A fifth-round pick (#147, LB Tank Carder) was also used in the 2010 trade when Seattle acquired Marshawn Lynch from Buffalo.

He has shown a willingness and creativity to acquire extra draft picks and young talent via trade and free agency since his inaugural season. Presented with two of the top 14 picks in the 2010 NFL Draft, he was able to acquire what many considered the best tackle prospect in Pro Bowler Russell Okung and a starting free safety with the selection of three-time first-team All-Pro Earl Thomas.

He orchestrated 13 trades in 2010 as general manager, 12 in 2017 and 13 in 2019 to build draft capital and add veteran leadership. His trades have netted game-changing veterans and young talent in Jamal Adams, Duane Brown, Chris Carson, Kam Chancellor, Chris Clemons, Jadeveon Clowney, Charles Cross, Michael Dickson, Quandre Diggs, Carlos Dunlap II, Jimmy Graham, Percy Harvin, Bruce Irvin, Tyler Lockett, Lynch, DK Metcalf, Jarran Reed, Richard Sherman, Golden Tate, Darrell Taylor and Wagner.

His roster has included 15 first-team All-Pro selections since 2012, and without a Pro Bowl selection on the roster from 2009-10, Schneider's roster has seen 28 different players selected from 2011-22: Russell Wilson (9), Wagner (8), Thomas (6), Chancellor (4), Lynch (4), Sherman (4), Michael Bennett (3), Diggs (3), Doug Baldwin (2), Brown (2), Graham (2), Max Unger (2), Adams, Cliff Avril, Nick Bellore, Brandon Browner, Dickson, Shaquill Griffin, Lockett, Metcalf, Jason Myers, Okung, Tyler Ott, Michael Robinson, Geno Smith, Leon Washington, K.J. Wright and Woolen. All of these players, except Unger, were added via draft, trade and free agency after Schneider took over.

Before joining the Seahawks, Schneider produced eight successful seasons with the Green Bay Packers. Originally joining the Packers on March 1, 2002, as a personnel analyst to the general manager, he was promoted in May of 2008 to director of football operations. In his role, Schneider served as strategic counsel to General Manager Ted Thompson, addressing and evaluating the needs of the team in both free agency and in the draft while incorporating long-range planning processes that examined the Packers' roster, as well as the rosters of all NFL teams.

Before rejoining the Packers in 2002, he spent three seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs (1997-99), one year with the Seahawks (2000) and a year with the Washington Commanders (2001) as vice president of player personnel.

Schneider, a native of De Pere, Wis., first learned the tools of his trade with the Packers, beginning as an intern during the summer of 1992 under Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf. After graduating from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minn., Schneider returned to Green Bay, serving as pro personnel assistant for four years (1993-96), and played an integral role in the signing of several free agents who would help make up the team that won Super Bowl XXXI in New Orleans.

Schneider moved on to the Kansas City Chiefs in 1997 as director of pro personnel. It was in Kansas City that Schneider first worked with Marty Schottenheimer, whom he would later join in Washington. With the Chiefs, Schneider oversaw the scouting of all players with pro playing experience, including NFL Europa and the CFL, as well as the NFL. He also conducted advance scouting of all Kansas City opponents and was responsible for free agent acquisition.

In 2000, he subsequently signed on as director of player personnel for the Seahawks, joining Thompson and Mike Holmgren, with whom he had worked in Green Bay.

Schneider joined Schottenheimer in Washington in 2001 as vice president of player personnel, overseeing all aspects of the player personnel department, including college scouting, the college draft, pro scouting, free agency and day-to-day player personnel evaluations and operations. His duties included assembling and managing Washington's scouting staff, a process which involved the hiring of 15 personnel staff members and implementation of a new scouting system. In his role, Schneider advised Schottenheimer on all personnel matters.

In 2012, John and his wife Traci launched "Ben's Fund." Named after their oldest son, "Ben's Fund" provides grants to young adults and families in order to help cover costs associated with medical bills, therapies and numerous other aspects of supporting a child, or children, on the autism spectrum. With the support of the organization and community, they have partnered to raise more than $5.0 million for "Ben's Fund" in 12 years.

In addition to their fundraising efforts, the Schneiders spearheaded the opening of the "A-OK Sensory Room" at Lumen Field in 2019 in order to better support guests with sensory needs. In 2022, the room was renovated and re-dedicated as "Ben's Room." The space continues to offer guests at Lumen Field a safe and calming environment for those who need a respite from the noise and excitement that comes with the Seahawks gameday experience.

Schneider serves on the GM Advisory Committee and the Club Executive Committee Working Group.

He earned a degree in history and also studied education at St. Thomas, playing football for one year before a shoulder injury cut short his career.

Born on May 25, 1971, Schneider attended De Pere's Abbot Pennings High School and finished as one of the school's all-time leading rushers. He and Traci have two sons, Ben, 21, and Jack, 19.

2010-	Seattle Seahawks	Executive V.P. & Head Coach

Named head coach on January 11, 2010, Pete Carroll became the eighth head coach in Seahawks history after one of the most successful runs in USC history in the college ranks. He brings 29 years of NFL experience and 19 years of collegiate experience to Seattle.

Carroll's overall head coaching record is 161-112-1 in the regular season and 11-11 in the postseason in his 17 years of NFL head coaching. His 172 combined wins (regular and postseason) are the 16th-most in NFL history.

In his tenure as head coach in Seattle, Carroll and Executive VP/General Manager John Schneider constructed the best teams in Seahawks history over the past 13 seasons with a 128-81-1 record, back-to-back Super Bowl appearances in 2013-14, posted 10-plus wins in five consecutive seasons (2012-16) for the first time in franchise history, and won five NFC West Division titles.

Seattle has reached the postseason 10 of Carroll's 13 seasons as coach, advanced to the divisional round seven times, winning two NFC Championships and one Super Bowl, while claiming the No. 1 seed in the NFC twice, and for the third time in franchise history (2005 under Mike Holmgren, 2013-14).

Seattle led the NFL in scoring defense for four-consecutive seasons from 2012-15, becoming the first defense in the Super Bowl era to accomplish the feat. Cleveland led the league in scoring defense for a record five-straight seasons from 1953-57 in 12-game seasons.

Carroll continues to grow the team through his strong philosophy of preaching competition and taking care of the football.

Helping that cause, Carroll has established a winning culture through a foundation of young talent and veteran leadership led by S Jamal Adams, LB Jordyn Brooks, S Quandre Diggs, WR Tyler Lockett, WR DK Metcalf, QB Geno Smith, LB Bobby Wagner, RB Kenneth Walker III, and CB Tariq Woolen.

Despite the departures of several key veterans, Seattle returned to the postseason as the NFC's seventh seed in 2022 after a 9-8 record in the regular season. Seattle needed to win its final two games to join the playoff field, and the Seahawks did just that, helping Carroll became the ninth head coach in NFL history to make the playoffs in 12 different seasons.

2021 was an uncharacteristic season for Seattle as the Seahawks missed the postseason for the first time since 2017. However, after a disappointing 3-8 start, Carroll's Seahawks finished strong, rattling off four wins in their final six games, helped by the emergence of Seattle's running game, finishing the season with 1,056 rushing yards since Week 13, most in the NFL. Seattle scored 30 or more points in each of those wins, creating strong momentum and optimism for 2022.

In a year with limited or no fans at games around the league due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the 2020 Seahawks concluded the season with a 12-4 record and champions of the NFC West. It was the 11th division title in franchise history and fifth under Carroll, tying Mike Holmgren for the most by a Seattle head coach. It was the 14th time in the last 18 seasons that Seattle qualified for the postseason and ninth time in Carroll's 11 seasons as head coach. The Seahawks scored a franchise-record 459 points while winning 12 or more games for the fifth time in club history.

Carroll's 2019 team held a 10-2 record through the first three quarters of the season but went an uncharacteristic 1-3 to finish the year and slipped to the no. 5 seed in the NFC playoffs, winning the Wild Card Game and advancing to the Divisional Round for the seventh time in the last 10 seasons, while appearing in the postseason for the eighth time. Posting a franchise-best 7-1 road record, Seattle reached 10 wins for the seventh time in the last eight seasons, something accomplished only five times in franchise history from 1976-2011. The Seahawks became the second team in NFL history to win 10 one-score games in a single season, joining the 1978 Oilers (10-6 record) and Carroll earned his 100th regular season win in franchise history, extending his own franchise record.

The 2018 Seahawks exceeded everyone's expectations but their own as they won 10 games for the sixth time in the last seven seasons and advancing to the Wild Card playoffs. After a 4-5 start to the season, Seattle became the 28th team with a losing record after nine games to advance to the postseason, scoring the second-most points in franchise history (428) and leading the NFL with a rushing attack that accumulated 2,560 yards, the third-most in franchise history, marking the top-three rushing seasons all under Carroll (2012, 2014, 2018).

Seattle concluded the 2017 season with a 9-7 record and a second-place finish in the NFC West. Despite injuries on the defensive side of the ball to DE Cliff Avril, S Kam Chancellor, CB Richard Sherman and missing its top-two running backs in Chris Carson and C.J. Prosise, Seattle entered the final-quarter of the season with an 8-4 record and remained in the hunt for an NFC West title and a shot at winning 10 games for the sixth-consecutive season.

The Seahawks won their 10th division title in franchise history in 2016 with a 10-5-1 record. Seattle's defense finished in the top-5 for the fifth-consecutive season (2012-16), an impressive feat during an era of unprecedented scoring and yardage numbers in NFL history.

Seattle's NFL-record streak of not losing by more than 10 points in 85 regular season games (95 games including playoffs) ended at Green Bay (12/11/16), and its NFL-record streak of 88 regular season games (98 games including playoffs) where it has led or been within one score in the fourth quarter came to an end at Tampa Bay (11/27/16).

After beginning the 2015 season 0-2, 2-4 and 4-5, the Seahawks became the 22nd team with a losing record after nine games to advance to the postseason, winning six of their last seven games to post a 10-6 record and finishing in the top-10 in defense for a franchise-record fifth-consecutive season (2011-15). Seattle defeated the Vikings in Minnesota in the Wild Card round but dropped a 31-24 decision at Carolina in the divisional round.

Seattle's defense finished 2015 ranked second (291.8 ypg) while the offense ranked fourth in the NFL (378.6 ypg), setting the franchise-record with 6,058 yards. It was the fourth time in franchise history, first since 2005, with a top-five offense.

The team won its ninth division title in club history in 2014, third under Carroll, after winning the NFC West with a 12-4 record. Seattle fell to New England, 28-24, in Super Bowl XLIX in Glendale, Ariz., in a season that saw it begin 3-3 but finish the season with a 9-1 record and the No. 1 seed in the NFC for the second consecutive season.

The Seahawks also became the fourth team in NFL history to lead the league in fewest points and yards allowed in back-to-back seasons (2013-14), and first since the 1985-86 Chicago Bears. The Seahawks led the league in defense for the second straight year while the offense had the No. 1-ranked rushing attack with a franchise-record 2,762 yards and ranked in the top-10 in offense (ninth overall) for the first time since the 2007 season.

In 2013, Carroll led Seattle to its first Super Bowl title in franchise history with a 43-8 victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XLVIII in New York/New Jersey on February 2, 2014, after a franchise-best 13-3 regular season record, and joined Jimmy Johnson and Barry Switzer as the only coaches to win a college football national title and a Super Bowl in their career.

Carroll and Schneider constructed one of the best defenses in the last 12 years at the time, leading them to the NFL title. The Seahawks defense ranked first overall in the NFL in total defense (273.6 ypg), passing defense (172.0 ypg), points allowed (14.4 ppg), takeaways (39), interceptions (28), turnover differential (+20) and opponent quarterback rating (63.4).

The youngest Super Bowl-winning roster in NFL history (26 years, 162 days) was led by second-year QB Russell Wilson, who became the third-youngest quarterback to win the title game (25 years, 65 days).

In 2012, Carroll led Seattle to the NFC Divisional Playoff posting the fourth-best record in franchise history (11-5). Seattle won its first postseason road game since 1983 with a Wild Card Game victory at Washington.

One of the youngest teams in the NFL to end the season for the second-consecutive year (second overall, third-youngest defensive starters, fourth-youngest offensive starters), Seattle started 4-4 but went on to finish the season 7-1 led by rookie Wilson and the league's fourth-ranked defense, that also led the league allowing 245 points (15.3 ppg).

Carroll's 2011 squad also ranked as one of the youngest in the NFL; beginning the season with the second-youngest roster in Week 1, once having the third-youngest offensive line during the season and ending the year with the second-youngest starting defensive unit in the league.

He saw his 2011 defense improve weekly, ending the season ranked ninth in the league in total defense, just the sixth time Seattle had boasted a top-10 defense and first since 1997. His offense switched gears from a quick-strike, no-huddle group to a grind-it-out ground game led by RB Marshawn Lynch over the last half of the season. That offensive mentality helped Seattle rank fifth in the NFL with 1,212 rush yards over the last nine games of the season.

Always competing, the Seahawks jumped out to a 4-2 record to begin the 2010 season and parlayed that in to the club's fifth NFC West title in the past seven seasons, punctuating the season with a 41-36 victory over the defending Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints at Lumen Field in the Wild Card Game.

Carroll returned to the NFL after spending nine years (2001-09) as head coach at USC, where he won seven consecutive Pac-10 titles (2002-08), two national championships (2003-04) and led the Trojans to a 97-19 record. He reached a bowl in each of his nine seasons and won seven. His 88 victories from 2001 to 2008 tied Bob Pruett of Marshall for most by a Division I coach in their first eight seasons since 1900 (Penn's George Woodruff - 102). He reached 50 career USC wins faster than any head coach in Trojans history. From 2002-08, his teams appeared in an NCAA-record seven consecutive BCS bowls, recorded at least 11 victories seven times (an NCAA record) and finished ranked in the AP Top-4. USC was the AP's No. 1 team for a national-record 33 straight polls (including two preseason polls) and was ranked in the AP Top-10 for a school-record 63 consecutive games. His teams were ranked in the AP Top 25 for 102 consecutive games, a school record. In 2009, he was named Coach of the Decade by Lindy's.

Also under Carroll, USC was the first school to have three Heisman Trophy winners in a four-year span (QB Carson Palmer, QB Matt Leinart, RB Reggie Bush). He also coached winners of the Walter Camp, Chuck Bednarik, Johnny Unitas, Doak Walker and John Mackey Awards. Carroll produced 34 All-American first-teamers and 53 NFL draft picks (including 14 first-rounders, with a No. 1 selection in Palmer and a No. 2 in Bush). His USC program had the nation's most draftees in 2006, 2008 and 2009.

USC posted a 12-1 record in 2008 and advanced to its fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl, defeating Penn State, 38-24, to become the first team to win three straight Rose Bowls. In the polls, the Trojans finished ranked second by USA Today and third by AP. USC finished first in scoring defense (9.8 ppg, its finest in 41 years), surrendering just 14 touchdowns in 2008.

In 2007, USC went 11-2 and finished second in the USA Today poll and third in the AP poll, for its sixth AP Top-4 ranking in a row. Its 49-17 win over Illinois in the Rose Bowl equaled the most points ever in the bowl game. Five players were named All-American first-teamers.

USC posted an 11-2 mark in 2006, finished No. 4 in the final polls and shared the Pac-10 title at 7-2 to capture an unprecedented fifth straight conference crown. Five Trojans were All-American first-teamers and Carroll was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year for the third time.

His Trojans held AP's No. 1 ranking for the entire regular season in 2005. USC went 12-1 overall to advance to the BCS Championship Game in the Rose Bowl. The Trojans, who finished second in both polls, boasted a school-record six All-American first-teamers, including Heisman Trophy-winning tailback Bush. He was the 2005 Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year, as well as the American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Region 5 Coach of the Year.

In 2004, he guided No. 1-ranked USC to its second consecutive national championship with a convincing win over Oklahoma in the BCS Championship Game in the Orange Bowl. USC became only the second team ever to hold its AP preseason No. 1 ranking all the way through a season. It was only the 10th time that a team won back-to-back AP crowns. His team was 13-0 (a school-record for wins) and went 8-0 in the Pac-10. A school-record six Trojans were named All-American first-teamers.

The Trojans won the AP national championship, its first national crown since 1978, and entered the Rose Bowl also ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/ESPN poll, in 2003. USC was 12-1 overall and finished the season ranked second. USC's 534 points was a Pac-10 record. Five Trojans were first-team All-Americans. For this, Carroll was named the 2003 American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Coach of the Year, Home Depot National Coach of the Year, Maxwell Club College Coach of the Year, ESPN.com National Coach of the Year, Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. Coach of the Year and All-American Football Foundation Frank Leahy Co-Coach of the Year. He also was the Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year.

In 2002, USC posted its first 11-win season since 1979 and its highest ranking (No. 4) since 1988. Heisman Trophy-winning QB Palmer and S Troy Polamalu were first team All-Americans.

Carroll was named USC's head football coach on December 15, 2000, and in his first season, led the Trojans to the Las Vegas Bowl and a 6-6 record.

He began his NFL career as defensive backs coach for Buffalo (1984) and Minnesota (1985-89) before becoming the N.Y. Jets defensive coordinator (1990-93) and head coach (1994). He spent two years as San Francisco's defensive coordinator (1995-96), leading the league in total defense in 1995, before leading New England to a 27-21 record and two playoff appearances as head coach (1997-99).

Carroll spent the 2000 season as a consultant for pro and college teams, doing charitable work for the NFL and writing a column on pro football for CNNSI.com.

He began his coaching career at the collegiate level, serving as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Pacific, for three years (1974-76), working with the wide receivers and secondary. He then spent a season as a graduate assistant working with the secondary at Arkansas (1977) under Lou Holtz as the Razorbacks won the 1978 Orange Bowl, and then a season each as an assistant in charge of the secondary at Iowa State (1978) and at Ohio State (1979). He next spent three seasons (1980-82) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at North Carolina State, before returning to Pacific in 1983 as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator.

Carroll was a two-time (1971-72) All-Pacific Coast Conference free safety at Pacific and earned his bachelor's degree in 1973 in business administration. He received his secondary teaching credential and a master's degree in physical education from Pacific in 1976. He was inducted into the Pacific Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995. In May of 2022, Carroll received an honorary doctorate degree from the university.

He was a three-sport (football, basketball and baseball) standout at Redwood High in Larkspur, Calif., earning the school's Athlete of the Year award as a senior. He played quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back. He was inducted into the inaugural Redwood High Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009. He then played football at Marin Junior College in Kentfield, Calif., from 1969-70 before transferring to Pacific.

Carroll's passion for working with people goes beyond the football field and into the community. Throughout his career he founded and championed philanthropic efforts in Seattle, Los Angeles, and around the country.

While at USC, he started A Better L.A., and in Seattle he created A Better Seattle. Both work with community-based street outreach teams serving youth impacted by gangs and the juvenile justice system.

Carroll also spearheaded efforts to bring the youth empowerment and education program WE Day to the United States, resulting in WE Day being held across the country.

In 2020, Carroll hosted the podcast "Flying Coach," along with Steve Kerr, world champion head coach of the NBA's Warriors, combining sports with social justice issues.

In 2021, Carroll also launched the award-winning podcast "Amplify Voices: Conversations from the Heart," spotlighting some of the most inspiring and influential voices today, as well as imparting Carroll's legacy of caring leadership. Today, Carroll continues his philanthropic efforts by supporting organizations and causes addressing social justice and education.

Carroll was born on September 15 in San Francisco. He and his wife, Glena, have three children and seven grandchildren.

Clint Hurtt enters his second season as defensive coordinator after serving the previous five seasons as defensive line coach, adding the title of assistant head coach in 2018. Originally hired on March 16, 2017, Hurtt joined Seattle after two years as the Chicago Bears outside linebackers coach (2015-16) and one year as the Bears assistant defensive line coach (2014).

Hurtt's first season as defensive coordinator led to significant changes to Seattle's scheme with the Seahawks switching to a 3-4 defense. The changes helped lead to an improved pass rush, increasing from 34 sacks in 2021 to 45 sacks last season, tied for seventh most in the NFL. Uchenna Nwosu and Darrell Taylor led the team with 9.5 sacks each, becoming the only pair of teammates in the NFL to record at least nine sacks and three forced fumbles last season.

The quick development of CB Coby Bryant, LB Bofe Mafe and CB Tariq Woolen helped Seattle have the most productive rookie class in 2022, helping Seattle finish second in the NFL with 4,868 snaps played by rookies. Woolen set a rookie franchise record and tied for first in the NFL with six interceptions. He became the first rookie since 2000 and first player since 2016 (Marcus Peters) with at least 15 passes defensed, six interceptions and three fumble recoveries in a single season. Seattle finished third in the league with 18 forced fumbles and tied for eighth with 25 takeaways. Hurtt's defense had two players selected to the Pro Bowl: S Quandre Diggs (third selection), and Woolen (first selection).

In 2021, Hurtt's defensive line helped the Seahawks rank second in the league allowing 3.79 yards per rush. Veteran Al Woods had one of the finest seasons of his career, helping free up Jordyn Brooks and Bobby Wagner to set the two highest single-season totals for tackles in franchise history (Brooks - 183; Wagner - 170). After missing his rookie season due to injury, second-year defensive end Darrell Taylor emerged, finishing tied for second on the team with 6.5 sacks.

Seattle's defensive line was boosted by the mid-season addition of Carlos Dunlap II in 2020, helping the Seahawks register an NFL-best 37.0 sacks over the final 10 regular season games. Dunlap II ranked fourth on the team with 5.0 sacks and third with 12 quarterback hits despite only playing only eight games.

In 2019, Jadeveon Clowney ranked 9th in the NFL with 16 tackles for a loss, and he scored two defensive touchdowns (one INT, one FR) while Rasheem Green led the team with 4.0 sacks.

Seattle’s defensive line in 2018 saw a breakout year from DT Jarran Reed, as he posted career-highs in sacks (10.5, 3rd among NFL interior linemen), tackles (50) and quarterback hits (24). His 10.5 sacks were the third-most by a DT in franchise history, trailing only Hall of Famers Cortez Kennedy (14.0) and John Randle (11.0). Added to DE Frank Clark’s career-high 13.0 sacks, the 23.5 combined sacks ranked fifth in the NFL and seventh in franchise history.

Hurtt’s defensive line in 2017 was led by DE Michael Bennett (8.5 sacks) and DE Clark (9.0 sacks) for the second-consecutive season, as the two combined for 17.5 sacks, the fifth-most by a defensive end tandem in the NFL. Clark’s total was one-off his career-high set in 2016.

Hurtt’s 2015 linebacker corps of Lamarr Houston (career-high 8.0 sacks), Willie Young (6.5) and Pernell McPhee (6.0) were the only trio of linebackers in the NFL to have at least six sacks each. Hurtt helped both Houston and Young transition from ends in a 4-3 base defense to 3-4 outside linebackers.

In 2014, Young led the team with a career-high 10.0 sacks after totaling just six sacks in his first four seasons in the league with the Detroit Lions.

Prior to joining the Bears in 2014, Hurtt spent 13 years in the collegiate ranks coaching 14 NFL draft picks during that time. From 2010-13, he worked as Louisville’s defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator, adding the title of associate head coach from 2011-13. In 2013, Louisville’s defense was tops in the nation in sacks (3.31), total defense (251.5 ypg), rushing defense (80.7 ypg) and third down defense (27.0%) and second in scoring defense (12.2 points per game).

Hurtt came to Louisville from Miami, his alma mater, where he worked as the team’s defensive line coach from 2006-09, adding the title of recruiting coordinator in 2007. It was his second stint at his alma mater after beginning his coaching career as a volunteer strength and conditioning coach from 2001-02 before working as a graduate assistant with the Hurricanes from 2003-04.

In between stints at Miami, Hurtt spent the 2005 season at Florida International University as the Golden Panthers defensive line coach where he coached Antwan Barnes, who became the first player ever to be drafted out of FIU (Baltimore Ravens, 2005).

Hurtt was a three-year letterman at Miami (1997, 1999-2000) before his career ended prior to the 2001 season due to injury.

Born on November 7, 1978, Hurtt and his wife, Tanisha, have a daughter, Taylor, and son, Clayton.

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

NFL EXPERIENCE: 13th YEAR SEAHAWKS EXPERIENCE: 6th YEAR

IZZO'S COACHING CAREER

2011-15	N.Y. Giants	Assistant Special Teams
2016-17	Houston Texans	Special Teams Coordinator
2018-20	Seattle Seahawks	Assistant Special Teams
2021-	Seattle Seahawks	Special Teams Coordinator

Hired on February 27, 2018, Larry Izzo begins his sixth season on the Seahawks staff, and third as special teams coordinator. Izzo spent seven seasons coaching with the N.Y. Giants (2011-15) and Houston (2016-17) following a 14-year playing career.

The Seahawks were once again one of the NFL's best teams in 2022 when it came to special teams play. Kicker Jason Myers led the NFL in scoring on his way to a second Pro-Bowl selection, connecting on 34 of 37 field goal attempts, including 6 of 6 from 50-plus yards. The 34 made FGs tied a franchise record (Todd Peterson - 1999). Punter Michael Dickson finished second in the league in net average (44.4 yards per punt), while his 48.5 yards-per-punt gross average was the second best of his five-year career. With special teams captain Nick Bellore helping lead the way, Izzo's special teams unit finished second in analyst Rick Gosselin's annual special team rankings, which are based on where teams finish the season ranked in 22 different special teams statistical categories. It was the Seahawks' third-straight season finishing in the top three of Gosselin's ratings.

Seattle's special teams unit was a strength for the Seahawks in 2021, ranking third in Gosselin's annual ranking. Punter Michael Dickson led the league with 40 punts inside the 20, breaking his old mark, while setting the single-season franchise record. Seattle scored two touchdowns on special teams, the unit's first time finding the end zone since 2017. Travis Homer had a hand in both scores; returning an onside kick 44 yards vs. Jacksonville (10/31/21) and rushing 73 yards on a fake punt vs. San Francisco (12/5/21). Homer also added a pressure on Arizona (1/9/21) punter Andy Lee, which led to a forced fumble, recovery, and ensuing Seattle touchdown drive. Special Teams captain Nick Bellore ranked third in the NFL with 15 special teams tackles. Kicker Jason Myers made a franchise-record 37 consecutive field goals from 11/11/19-9/26/21. It is tied for the fifth-longest streak in NFL history.

In 2020, Izzo's special teams unit had a spectacular season, finishing second in Gosselin's annual special teams rankings, a list kept for the last 42 seasons. Kicker Jason Myers connected on all 24 field goals, finishing 2020 having made 35-consecutive dating back to 2019, a franchise-record. Punter Michael Dickson ranked second in the NFL with a 49.6 punting average and ranked in the top-five in average, net average, and punts landing inside the 20. Long snapper Tyler Ott and special teamer Nick Bellore were voted to their first Pro Bowls.

In 2019, the Seahawks special teams units forced three takeaways and blocked three kicks, while punter Michael Dickson tied Jeff Feagles and Jon Ryan for the franchise-record for most punts landing inside the 20 in a single season with 34.

In 2018, Seattle's special teams included the second-oldest kicker in the league (Sebastian Janikowski) and one of the youngest punters in the league (rookie Michael Dickson). Janikowski went on to become the third player since 1970 to kick three game-winning field goals with no time left on the clock in a season in what was his 19th, and final, season in the NFL. Dickson set the franchise single-season punt average (48.2) and net average (42.5) records while becoming the first rookie punter to be named first-team AP All-Pro since Oakland's Shane Lechler in 2000 and the first Seattle punter to make the Pro Bowl since Rick Tuten in 1994, and the first rookie punter since the Los Angeles Rams' Dale Hatcher in 1985 to be selected to a Pro Bowl.

In Izzo's first season with Houston in 2016, K Nick Novak turned in one of the best seasons in franchise history. Novak tied for second in the NFL with 35 field goals made, which marked his career high and the most in a single season in Texans history.

Izzo joined the Texans after spending five seasons (2011-15) as the assistant special teams coach with the N.Y. Giants, where he was a part of the team's Super Bowl XLVI victory in 2011. In 2015, the Giants finished second in the Dallas Morning News' annual comprehensive ranking of the league's special teams. The unit ranked fifth in opponent kickoff return average (20.3) and tied for first in field goal percentage (93.8). New York was also seventh in the NFL in punt return average (10.2) and 10th in kickoff return average (24.9). The Giants' kickoff team allowed an average return of just 18.3 yards in 2014, which ranked second in the NFL.

In 2012, the special teams made significant contributions to the Giants' winning season and finished seventh in the Dallas Morning News' annual ranking. The Giants led the NFL with five special teams takeaways and their average drive start following a kickoff was at the 25.2-yard line, which led the NFL. The Giants also averaged 26.2 yards per kickoff return, which placed them seventh in the NFL.

In 2011, Izzo's first season with the Giants, he won his fourth Super Bowl ring and first as a coach. He also helped develop a group of rookies who quickly became outstanding special teams players, including Mark Herzlich, Spencer Paysinger, Tyler Sash and Jacquian Williams.

In his 14-year NFL career (1996-2009), Izzo played for three teams, including the Miami Dolphins (1996-2000), New England Patriots (2001-08) and New York Jets (2009). He was a three-time Super Bowl champion with New England (2001, 2003 and 2004) and a three-time Pro Bowler (2000, 2002 and 2004). He is one of 22 people in NFL history to win a Super Bowl as both a player and coach.

He was also credited with 275 special teams tackles in 200 regular season games and 23 more in 21 postseason games. Izzo never played on a team with a losing record and his teams participated in the playoffs nine times, reaching five AFC Championship Games and four Super Bowls. His teammates selected him as a special teams captain nine times, including eight with the Patriots.

Izzo, who is considered one of the best special teams players in NFL history, began his career in 1996 as an undrafted free agent with the Miami Dolphins. He made such a rapid and positive impact that in the preseason, Head Coach Jimmy Johnson said only two players were guaranteed to make the team – future Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino and Izzo.

Izzo, who is from Woodlands, Texas, was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Rice University, where he played linebacker and finished fourth in school history with 301 tackles, including a record 46 for losses. As a senior captain, he had 121 tackles and was named a consensus first-team All-Southwest Conference selection. He graduated in 2002 with a degree in business.

In 2005, Izzo and Warrick Dunn participated in a USO tour to visit troops stationed overseas. They began their trip at Bagram Air Base in Afghanistan, where they helped open the Pat Tillman USO Center, then spent time with troops in Baghdad, Kuwait and Qatar.

Born on September 26, 1974, he and his wife, Mara, have two sons, Boston and Hawk.

2018	Los Angeles Rams	Pass Game Coord./TEs
2019-20	Los Angeles Rams	Pass Game Coordinator
2021-	Seattle Seahawks	Offensive Coordinator

Shane Waldron enters his third season as offensive coordinator after joining the Seahawks staff on January 29, 2021. He spent the previous four seasons with the Los Angeles Rams, including the last three as passing game coordinator.

Last season, Waldron was instrumental in the success of QB Geno Smith, who became the first QB since Rich Gannon (1999) to earn his first Pro Bowl selection in Year 10 or later. Smith finished the season leading the NFL in completion percentage (69.8), finished in the top five in touchdown passes (30), and passer rating (100.9), while setting franchise records for completion percentage, passing yards (4,282), completions (399), and pass attempts (572). He was named the 2022 AP Comeback Player of the Year.

Smith was able to establish strong chemistry with Seattle's wide receivers as Waldron's offense helped yield a pair of 1,000-yard receivers. Tyler Lockett finish with 84 catches for 1,033 yards and nine touchdowns, becoming the only player in the NFL with at least eight TD receptions in each of the past five seasons. DK Metcalf led the team with a career high 90 catches for 1,048 yards. The 90 receptions are the fourth-most in a single-season in Seattle history.

Seattle's offense ranked in the top-10 in at least eight major categories, which was helped by the quick development of the 2022 Rookie Class, including Charles Cross and Abraham Lucas, who became the first rookie duo to start a team's first 15 games at tackle since the 1970 merger. Fellow rookie RB Kenneth Walker III, finished second in AP Offensive Rookie of the Year voting while leading all rookie runners in attempts (228), yards (1,050) and rushing touchdowns (9).

In 2021, Waldron's inaugural season in Seattle, the Seahawks' saw the emergence of Rashaad Penny, who led the NFL in rushing over the final five games with 671 yards to go along with six touchdowns. Overall, the Seahawks' rushing attack finished third in the NFL with an average of 5.02 rushing yards per attempt. Additionally, Seattle's passing game set several records, including Russell Wilson joining Peyton Manning as the only players in NFL history to post at least 3,000 passing yards and 20 TDs in each of their first 10 seasons. Wilson and Duane Brown were both named to the NFC Pro Bowl roster. Tyler Lockett became the seventh player in franchise history to record 1,100 receiving yards in a single-season with a career-high 1,175, and DK Metcalf set a career-high with 12 touchdown receptions, tied for third-most in franchise history.

Waldron's emphasis on ball security produced the fewest giveaways in the NFL with 13 and second fewest in franchise history. Taking care of the football, along with Seattle's ability to marry the run with the pass, helped the Seahawks rank fifth in the NFL in scoring since Week 13, averaging 31.0 points per game, while winning four of those six games.

The 2020 season saw QB Jared Goff pass for a career-high 67.03 completion percentage (370 for 552) and over 3,900 yards for the third-consecutive season, missing his third-straight 4,000-yard season by 48 yards.

Waldron was influential in the continued growth of Goff during the 2019 campaign. Goff became the first quarterback in franchise history to post consecutive seasons with over 4,000 passing yards. Goff finished the season third in the NFL in passing with 4,638 yards and threw for 20-plus touchdowns for the third-consecutive season. WRs Cooper Kupp and Robert Woods finished with 1,161 and 1,134 receiving yards, respectively. It marked the first time the Rams had consecutive seasons with multiple receivers totaling over 1,000 receiving yards since a run of four-straight seasons from 1999-2002.

In 2018, Waldon helped lead a Rams passing attack that finished among the top-10 in passing yards per attempt (4th), passing yards per game (5th) and touchdowns (T8th) and saw Goff set career-bests across the stat sheet.

Under Waldron's guidance in 2017, the tight end duo of Tyler Higbee and Gerald Everett combined for 539 yards, three touchdowns and averaged 13.1 yards per reception. Everett recorded a 69-yard reception in his second game as a professional which tied for the second-longest reception by a tight end during the 2017 season.

Previously, Waldron served as the Washington Football Team's offensive quality control coach for the 2016 season. That season, Washington's offense broke the franchise record for total net yards in a single season (6,454), surpassing the previous team record set in 1989. That same team averaged 403.4 yards per game, becoming the first team in franchise history to average 400 yards per game. In the NFL rankings, Washington ranked third in total offense.

Prior to joining the Washington Football Team, Waldron spent four seasons at UMass, serving as the Minutemen's Recruiting Coordinator/Tight Ends coach from 2012-13 and offensive line coach from 2014-15. Waldron helped guide tight end Rob Blanchflower to a seventh-round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 2014 NFL Draft after Blanchflower set the school record for most career receiving yards by a tight end.

In 2011, Waldron served as the offensive coordinator at Buckingham Browne & Nichols High School (Mass.) and also as a Northeast Sports Consultant. A year earlier, he served as wide receivers coach for the Hartford Colonials of the United Football League.

Before his stint in the UFL, Waldron worked with the New England Patriots in various capacities across five seasons with the franchise. Beginning in 2002, Waldron served as an operations intern for two seasons before being promoted to the title of an operations assistant in 2004, when he handled special teams quality control duties in addition to overseeing the completion of weekly game plans. After three years coaching at Notre Dame, Waldron returned to New England in 2008 to serve as an offensive quality control coach and later served as the tight ends coach in 2009. That year the tight end duo of Benjamin Watson and Chris Baker combined for 546 yards, seven touchdowns and averaged 12.7 yards per reception.

Waldron spent the 2005-07 seasons as an offensive graduate assistant at Notre Dame. With the Irish, he helped guide two of the most explosive offenses in school history, as both the 2005 and 2006 units averaged at least 31 points per game.

A native of Portland, Ore., Waldron is a 2002 graduate of Tufts University, where he was a three-year letterman playing for Bill Samko. He is married to Meghan with two daughters, Lainey and Rylee.

Anderson also helped Smith garner his sixth Pro Bowl selection in 2021. Smith also tied his career high in sacks with 3.0, while registering 114 tackles, seven passes defensed and one interception.

In the secondary in 2020, Smith made a team-high five interceptions, tied for the most in the NFC for the season. Fellow rookie CB Cameron Dantzler tied for fourth in the NFL among rookie defensive backs with three tackles for loss, and his two interceptions tied for fifth. Dantzler was named to the PFWA's All-Rookie Team for his efforts.

Anderson served as the lead defensive analyst for the National Champion LSU Tigers in 2019, during their undefeated national title season.

Prior to his lone season with the Tigers, Anderson spent 14 years in the NFL, primarily coaching defensive backs. He was the Chicago Bears safeties coach from 2017-18. While with the Bears, Anderson helped Chicago lead the NFL in scoring defense (17.7 ppg), rushing defense (80.0 ypg), yards per play (4.8), takeaways (35), interceptions (27), three-and-outs (26.8%) and 20+ yard plays (46). While with the Colts in 2014-15, Anderson coached starting S Mike Adams, helping him earn consecutive Pro Bowls in those seasons. Adams was named to his first-career Pro Bowl following the 2014 season after tying for the NFL lead in takeaways with seven (five interceptions, two fumble recoveries). It was his highest takeaway output in his 11 NFL seasons. Adams also posted a single-season career-high with 93 tackles and tied a career-best with 11 passes defensed. In 2015, Adams ranked fourth on the team with 76 tackles and contributed with five interceptions (one returned for a touchdown). His five interceptions tied a career-high (2014) and tied for sixth in the NFL. Adams' three forced fumbles also set a new career-best.

In 2011, the Baltimore defense finished third in the NFL in total defense, second against the run and fourth against the pass on their way to an appearance in the AFC Championship Game. S Ed Reed was announced as a Pro Bowl selection. In 2010, Reed collected a first-team All-Pro, leading the league with eight interceptions. Reed also posted a career-high 16 passes defensed and was rated as the fifth-best player in the NFL's Top 100 Players of 2011.

NATE CARROLL

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

NFL EXPERIENCE: 13th YEAR SEAHAWKS EXPERIENCE: 13th YEAR

CARROLL'S COACHING CAREER

2011-12	Seattle Seahawks	Defensive Assistant
2013	Seattle Seahawks	Offensive Assistant
2014-17	Seattle Seahawks	Assistant Wide Receivers
2018-21	Seattle Seahawks	Wide Receivers
2022-	Seattle Seahawks	Senior Offensive Assistant

Named to the Seahawks staff on July 26, 2010, Nate Carroll moved into the coaching ranks in 2011 after spending the 2010 season as a personnel assistant in the scouting department.

Carroll enters his second season as senior offensive assistant after spending four seasons as the team's wide receivers coach (2018-21), and four seasons as an assistant (2014-17).

Tyler Lockett and DK Metcalf led the wide receiver room in 2021 as Lockett joined Steve Largent as the second player in franchise history with three-straight 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Metcalf finished fourth in the NFL with 12 receiving touchdowns, third most in team history.

In 2020, Tyler Lockett and DK Metcalf etched their names in the club's record books after becoming the second pair of 1,000-yard receivers in Seahawks history (Brian Blades and Joey Galloway in 1995). Lockett set a team record with 100 catches and 1,054 yards, the sixth player in club history to register back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Metcalf was voted to the Pro Bowl and named to the Associated Press All-Pro Team (second team), after setting a club record for most receiving yards in a season with 1,303. The duo gave Seattle two receivers with 10-plus touchdowns in a season for the second time in franchise history (Steve Largent and Daryl Turner in 1984).

Seattle's wide receivers in 2019 were led by a fifth-year veteran in Tyler Lockett and rookie in DK Metcalf. Lockett set a career-high with 1,057 yards and became the eighth player in franchise history to record a 1,000-yard season and first since Doug Baldwin in 2016. Metcalf moved directly in to the starting lineup and recorded the second-most receptions (58) by a rookie in franchise history and his receptions and 900 yards ranked second and third, respectively, in the NFL among rookie wide receivers. His 160 yards at Philadelphia in the Wild Card Game set the franchise postseason record and was the most receiving yards in a playoff game by a rookie in NFL history. His two-game postseason total of 219 yards are the third-most among rookies in NFL history.

With Baldwin slowed by injuries in 2018, it was Lockett who led the group with career-highs in catches (57), yards (965) and touchdowns (10, 6th NFL), while Baldwin was second on the team with 50 catches for 618 yards. When QB Russell Wilson targeted Lockett, he was 57 for 70 (81.4%) for 965 yards with 10 touchdowns and zero interceptions, good for a perfect 158.3 passer rating, a feat last accomplished in the 2009 season.

In 2017, Baldwin led the team for the fourth-consecutive season in catches and yards, with 75 receptions for 991 yards while adding eight touchdowns. He was also named to the Pro Bowl for the second year in a row.

Baldwin earned his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2016 after tying the franchise record with a career-high 94 receptions along with a career-high 1,128 yards, becoming the fifth player in franchise history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons.

In 2015, Seattle's receivers helped Wilson lead the NFL with a 110.1 rating. Baldwin became Seattle's first 1,000-yard receiver since Bobby Engram in 2007 and led the NFL with 14 touchdown receptions, also a franchise-record. Jermaine Kearse recorded career-highs in receptions, yards and touchdowns while Lockett's 51 receptions tied Baldwin for the fifth-most in franchise history by a rookie.

Carroll moved in to a new role in 2013 as an offensive assistant, working alongside wide receivers coach Kippy Brown during Seattle's Super Bowl-XLVIII winning season. Brown's group helped Wilson become the first quarterback in NFL history with a 100-plus passer rating in each of his first two seasons (2012-13).

In his first two seasons on the Seahawks coaching staff as a defensive assistant, Carroll's primary responsibilities included video study of opponents, self-scouting, playbook production and assisting several coaches and defensive coordinator Gus Bradley.

A graduate of USC, he earned his degree in psychology in 2010. Carroll was a three-sport star at Peninsula High in Palos Verdes, Calif., earning Athlete of the Year honors in 2006, passing on playing college football to attend USC.

Born on March 24, 1987, in Edina, Minn., Nate is the youngest son of head coach Pete Carroll. Married to Anna, the couple has two sons.

ANDY DICKERSON

OFFENSIVE LINE

NFL EXPERIENCE: 18th YEAR SEAHAWKS EXPERIENCE: 3rd YEAR

DICKERSON'S COACHING CAREER

2003	Tufts University	Graduate Assistant
2006-08	New York Jets	Coaching Asst./Def. Quality Control
2009	Cleveland Browns	Quality Control/Defense
2010	Cleveland Browns	Assistant Offensive Line
2011	New York Jets	Coaching Assistant
2012-20	St. Louis/L.A. Rams	Assistant Offensive Line
2021	Seattle Seahawks	Run Game Coordinator
2022-	Seattle Seahawks	Offensive Line

Andy Dickerson enters his second season as the team's offensive line coach after originally joining the team on January 29, 2021, as the Seahawks run game coordinator. He spent the previous nine seasons with the Rams after serving in similar roles with the Cleveland Browns and New York Jets.

Last season, Dickerson led an offensive line that started rookies at their bookend tackles with Charles Cross at left tackle and Abraham Lucas at right tackle. Cross and Lucas became the first rookie duo to start a team's first 15 games at tackle since the 1970 merger. Dickerson's unit helped Seattle function at a high level while protecting QB Geno Smith to a Pro-Bowl season. Seattle's rushing attack finished seventh in the NFL in yards per rush (4.80), and ended the season averaging 176.0 yards per game the final three weeks (second in the NFL).

In 2021, Dickerson helped guide Seattle's running game that finished third in the NFL in rushing yards per attempt (5.02). The Seahawks ground attack finished strong as RB Rashaad Penny led the NFL with 671 yards rushing since Week 14.

The Rams continued to rank in the top-10 in fewest sacks allowed in 2020, as the offensive line allowed the sixth-fewest (25) in the NFL. The o-line also helped RB Cam Akers to a successful rookie season. Akers finished the second half of the season with 110 carries for 477 yards and two touchdowns, plus a 171-yard performance that was the second-most by a Rams running back in franchise history.

Dickerson was influential in the success of L.A.'s ever-changing offensive line in 2019, which was forced to make adjustments throughout the season due to injury. Despite losing two starters, the unit went on to not allow a sack in a franchise-best six games while also allowing the fewest sacks in the league (22).

With the assistance of Dickerson in 2018, the Rams' offensive line was amongst the best in the league and featured the same starting five for all 16 games and three postseason games during Los Angeles' run to Super Bowl LIII.

Third-year QB Jared Goff was provided the time to throw for career highs in yards (4,688), touchdowns (32) and passer rating (101.1) in L.A.'s No. 2 ranked offense. For the second consecutive season, the Rams' O-line also ranked in the top 10 for fewest sacks allowed.

In 2017, the offensive line paved the way for one of the biggest offensive turnarounds in NFL history, helping the team improve from the 32nd-ranked scoring offense in 2016 to the league's top-scoring team the following year.

During the 2017 campaign, the offensive line provided time for Goff to have a break-out campaign and allowed RB Todd Gurley II to lead the league in total touchdowns (19) and scrimmage yards (2,093) en route to earning AP Offensive Player of the Year accolades.

Dickerson helped coach an offensive line that protected QB Case Keenum, who set career-highs in attempts, completions, completion percentage, passing yards and passing touchdowns in 2016.

For the third-consecutive year, the Rams boasted one of the NFL's top rookie runners in 2015. The Rams offensive line blocked for Offensive Rookie of the Year and rookie Pro Bowler Gurley to rush for 1,106 yards, which placed him third in the NFL in rushing yards. The Rams finished seventh in the NFL in rushing offense and allowed the fewest sacks in the league (18).

With the help of the St. Louis offensive line, RB Tre Mason finished second among all rookies and led the Rams with 765 rushing yards in 2015. As a team, St. Louis averaged 102.2 rushing yards per game, giving them at least 100 yards per game in each of Dickerson's three seasons with the Rams.

In 2013, St. Louis averaged 21.8 points per game, the club's highest point total since 2006, and the team's offensive line had a great impact on the team's play. RB Zac Stacy rushed for 973 yards, third-most by a rookie in team history. Over the last 11 games, only six NFL backs rushed for more yards than Stacy. In the passing game, the Rams allowed 36 sacks in 2014, the eighth lowest total in the NFL.

In his first season with the Rams, Dickerson helped guide an offensive line that allowed just 35 sacks after giving up 55 the previous year. St. Louis' offensive line was forced to deal with its share of adversity as nine different linemen started at least one game. The unit led the league in sacks allowed after seeing significant action from five rookies.

Dickerson spent the 2011 season with the Jets as a coaching assistant. He first broke into coaching as a member of their staff from 2006-08, with coaching assistant and defensive quality control responsibilities. He also spent two years with the Cleveland Browns, serving as assistant offensive line coach in 2010 and defensive quality control in 2009.

Before joining the Jets staff, Dickerson worked in the operations department of the New England Patriots, first as an intern in 2004 and then on a full-time basis the following year. He began his NFL career with the Washington Football Team as a training camp intern in 2003 before spending that season as a graduate assistant on the offensive staff at Tufts University.

Dickerson played collegiate football at Tufts from 1999-2002. He also performed in the shot put, discus and hammer throw on the school's track & field squad. Before that, he was a three-sport captain in football, wrestling, and track and field at Tower Hill School in his hometown of Wilmington, Del.

2004	St. Mary's College	QBs/Strength, Speed & Conditioning
2004-06	California	Offensive Assistant/QBs
2007-11	Oakland Raiders	Wide Receivers
2012-14	N.Y. Jets	Wide Receivers
2015-16	Buffalo Bills	Wide Receivers
2017	Indianapolis Colts	Wide Receivers
2018-19	Dallas Cowboys	Wide Receivers
2020	Seattle Seahawks	Senior Offensive Assistant
2021	Jacksonville Jaguars	Wide Receivers
2022-	Seattle Seahawks	Offensive Passing Game Coordinator/WRs

Sanjay Lal re-joined Seattle's coaching staff on February 15, 2022, as offensive passing game coordinator/wide receivers after spending one year as Jacksonville's wide receivers coach (2021). Lal served as the Seahawks senior offensive assistant in 2020. He also coached receivers previously with Dallas (2018-19), Indianapolis (2017), Buffalo (2015-16), the N.Y. Jets (2012-14) and Oakland (2007-11).

In 2022, Lal helped lead a receiver room that saw Tyler Lockett finish with 84 catches for 1,033 yards and nine touchdowns, becoming the only player in the NFL with at least eight TD receptions in each of the past five seasons. Lockett became the second player in franchise history (Steve Largent) to record four-straight 1,000-yard seasons (2019-22). DK Metcalf led the team with a career-high 90 catches for 1,048 yards. The 90 receptions are the fourth-most in a single-season in Seattle history. Metcalf became the fifth player in NFL history to reach 50 catches, 900 yards, and five touchdowns in each of his first four seasons (Joey Galloway, A.J. Green, Randy Moss, Michael Thomas). Both Lockett and Metcalf were Pro Bowl alternates. The pair, along with WR Marquise Goodwin's 27 catches for 387 yards, helped QB Geno Smith set a franchise record with 4,282 passing yards while leading the NFL in completion percentage (69.8).

In 2020, the Seahawks featured two 1,000-yard receivers in Tyler Lockett and DK Metcalf. Lockett led the team with a franchise-record 100 receptions for 1,054 yards and 10 touchdowns while Metcalf earned AP All-Pro second-team honors after totaling a franchise-record 1,303 yards and 10 touchdowns en route to his first Pro Bowl nod.

In 2019, the Cowboys had two 1,100-yard receivers in Amari Cooper and Michael Gallup for the first time since 2007. Cooper, who made the Pro Bowl, led the team with 79 receptions for 1,189 yards and eight touchdowns while Gallup became the third-youngest Cowboys receiver (23 years, 262 days) to reach the 1,000-yard plateau with 1,107 yards on 66 catches with six touchdowns. The two, along with WR Randall Cobb's 55 receptions for 828 yards and three scores, helped QB Dak Prescott enjoy a career year with more than 4,900 yards and 30 touchdowns and gave the Cowboys three players with 800-plus receiving yards for the first time since 2012.

In Lal's first season in Dallas in 2018, he helped break in a new receiving corps following the departure of WR Dez Bryant. WR Cole Beasley led all receivers with 65 receptions for 672 yards and three touchdowns. Lal's receivers got a boost when the Cowboys traded for Cooper from the Raiders at the trade deadline. In nine games with Dallas, Cooper was the team's No. 1 receiver as he tied for the fourth-most receiving first downs (39) and fourth-most touchdowns (six), had the eighth-most receptions (53) and ninth-most receiving yards (725) to lead the team and rank among the top 10 of all NFL wide receivers from Weeks 9-17.

In his lone season with the Colts, Lal oversaw a receiving corps that was led by WR T.Y. Hilton, who had 57 receptions (second on team) for 966 yards (team-high) and four touchdowns while earning a trip to the Pro Bowl as an alternate.

Before Indianapolis, he spent two seasons as the Bills wide receivers coach (2015-16). In 2015, WR Sammy Watkins recorded his first 1,000-yard campaign and led the NFL in average yards at the point of the catch (14.7). After returning from injury, Watkins finished the second half of the season ranked third in the NFL in receiving yards (900) from Weeks 9-17.

Prior to arriving in Buffalo, Lal spent three seasons (2012-14) with the N.Y. Jets and coached WR Eric Decker, who posted 74 catches for 962 yards and five touchdowns in 2014, logging a career-best game with 10 catches for 221 yards and a touchdown. In 2013, he guided WRs Jeremy Kerley and David Nelson, who finished first and second on the team in receptions, respectively. Kerley also posted a career-best 56 receptions in addition to 827 yards and a 14.8 yards per catch average in 2012.

Lal began his NFL coaching career spending five seasons (2007-2011) with the Oakland Raiders as the assistant wide receivers/quality control coach (2007-08) and wide receivers coach (2009-2011). Darrius Heyward-Bey enjoyed his most successful season under Lal's tutelage, totaling 64 receptions for 975 yards, both career-highs.

Before making the jump to the NFL, Lal coached collegiately at California (2004-06) as an offensive assistant and quarterbacks coach, at Saint Mary's College (2004) as the quarterbacks and strength, speed and conditioning coach and at Los Medanos College (2003) as receivers coach.

Lal attended the University of Washington where he played wide receiver. He was on Washington's 1992 National Championship team and a member of two Rose Bowl teams. Lal was invited to training camp with the Raiders in 1995 and also spent time with the St. Louis Rams in 1998. He signed with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe in 1999.

PAT McPHERSON

TIGHT ENDS

NFL EXPERIENCE: 26th YEAR SEAHAWKS EXPERIENCE: 14th YEAR

MCPHERSON'S COACHING CAREER

1994-97	Bellarmine College Prep	Linebackers/Running Backs
1996	San Francisco 49ers	Quality Control/Defense (volunteer)
1998	Denver Broncos	Defensive Assistant
1999-02	Denver Broncos	Offensive Assistant
2003-06	Denver Broncos	Quarterbacks
2007-08	Denver Broncos	Tights Ends
2010-	Seattle Seahawks	Tight Ends

Named to his position on February 4, 2010, McPherson joined Seattle after 11 years with the Denver Broncos, most recently serving as their tight ends coach from 2007-08. Before being named to that position, he spent four years (2003-06) as quarterbacks coach for the Broncos and also served as an offensive assistant (1999-2002) and defensive assistant (1998).

Last season, McPherson's tight end group played a major role in Seattle's offensive success. Noah Fant was Seattle's third-leading receiver, catching 50 passes for 486 yards and four touchdowns. It was Fant's third-straight season with 50 receptions. Will Dissly added 34 catches for 349 yards and three scores before missing the final two games of the year with a knee injury. Together, Dissly, Fant and Colby Parkinson combined for 109 catches, 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. McPherson's group proved to be extremely versatile, playing a big role in both pass-protection and run blocking.

McPherson helped lead a tight end group that combined for more than 700 yards receiving yards and five touchdowns in 2021. Dissly's biggest impact may have been his blocking in the running game, while Gerald Everett finished as the team's third leading receiver despite missing two games on the COVID-19 list with 48 catches for 478 yards and four touchdowns. Colby Parkinson appeared in 14 games after a strong training camp was cut short by a foot injury that caused him to miss the start of the season.

In 2020, three different tight ends recorded at least 20 receptions for more than 200 yards. Dissly (24-251), Jacob Hollister (25-209), and Greg Olsen (24-239) helped the tight end group register 75 catches for 715 yards and six touchdowns. Dissly played in 16 games (10 starts) for the first time in his career. Olsen finished his career with 8,683 yards, fifth most by a tight end in NFL history.

McPherson's tight ends were again tested for depth in 2019 as Dissly again suffered a season-ending injury, this time an Achilles, but not before logging 23 catches for 262 yards and four touchdowns. Jacob Hollister emerged as one of Russell Wilson's go-to targets by the end of the year and recorded career-highs in receptions (41), yards (349), and touchdowns (3) while playing in just 11 games with three starts. Luke Willson made a return to the Seahawks tight ends room, signing as a free agent during the season and adding eight catches for 79 yards.

McPherson's group's depth was tested in 2018 as fourth-round draft choice Dissly saw his season cut short due to a knee injury and offseason acquisition Ed Dickson sidelined for half of the season, leading tight end Nick Vannett to start nine of 15 games played and posting career-highs in catches (29), yards (269) and touchdowns (3). Dissly did make his mark in limited time, becoming the the first rookie tight end in NFL history to start his career with at least one touchdown and more than 40 yards receiving in back-to-back games during Weeks 1-2. Also, his 66-yard reception at Denver was the longest reception by a Seahawks rookie since Darrell Jackson (71 yards) in 2000.

Jimmy Graham enjoyed another Pro Bowl year in 2017 and re-wrote franchise records by a tight end in club history. It was Graham's fifth trip to the annual all-star game after hauling in 10 touchdown receptions, the second-most in the NFL and the most among tight ends in franchise history in a single-season. With 57 receptions for 520 yards and 10 touchdowns, those totals helped Graham become the franchise's all-time leader by a tight end in catches (170), yards (2,048) and touchdowns (18).

In 2016, McPherson helped Graham return from a torn patellar tendon and turn in a Pro Bowl season as he ranked second on the team with 65 receptions for 923 yards with six touchdowns.

Graham joined McPherson's group in 2015 but saw his season cut short after 11 games and 48 receptions for 605 yards and two touchdowns.

In their Super Bowl XLVIII winning season, Zach Miller and Willson combined for 53 receptions for 659 and six touchdowns, with a career-high tying five coming from Miller.

In 2012, Miller and Anthony McCoy each had three touchdowns while Miller hauled in 38 passes for 396 yards and McCoy had career-highs in catches (18), yards (291) and touchdowns.

In Denver, McPherson's promotion to quarterbacks coach in 2003 coincided with the Broncos signing of Jake Plummer. Plummer's 39-15 regular-season record (.722) from 2003-06 with McPherson as his position coach marked the fourth-best winning percentage among all NFL signal callers. In addition, Plummer concluded his career with Denver as its all-time leader in passer rating (84.3).

In 2004, Plummer set a Broncos single-season record for passing yards (4,089) while tying the team's record for most touchdown passes (27) in a season and directing the AFC's No. 3 pass offense (249.9 ypg). Additionally, the signal-caller posted 499 passing yards against the Falcons (10/31/04) for the highest single-game total in franchise history.

Plummer took his game to new levels under McPherson in 2005, leading Denver to a 13-3 record, an AFC West title and a berth in the AFC Championship Game while throwing for 3,366 yards.

McPherson in 2006 helped ease rookie quarterback Jay Cutler's transition into the NFL as the first-round draft choice started Denver's final five games and made league history in the process. Cutler became the first rookie in NFL history and one of only two players in league annals to throw at least two touchdown passes in each of his first four games.

McPherson was hired by the Broncos following a four-year coaching stint at his high school alma mater, Bellarmine College Prep in San Jose, Calif. In addition to football, his duties included teaching English, algebra and physical fitness at the school.

During his tenure at Bellarmine, the football team compiled a record of 35-11, won three consecutive league titles and made one section championship appearance. He also gained valuable coaching experience volunteering with the San Francisco 49ers in 1996, serving in a defensive quality control capacity.

McPherson holds a bachelor's degree in English and an MBA from Santa Clara, where he captained the football team and was voted Most Inspirational Player as an inside linebacker during his senior season of 1992. He began his collegiate career in 1987 at UCLA, where he received the Charles Pike Award, which recognizes the school's outstanding freshman football player. McPherson signed with the 49ers as a rookie free agent in 1993.

His father, Bill McPherson, coached in the NFL for 21 years and worked as a personnel consultant for the San Francisco 49ers before retiring in February 2005.

McPherson was an all-state and All-America inside linebacker at Bellarmine College Prep and earned Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors as a senior. In April 2004, McPherson was inducted into Bellarmine's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McPherson worked with the National Multiple Sclerosis Society in Santa Clara, Calif., in 1994, organizing and implementing the chapter's largest fund-raising event, the 1994 MS Walk.

He was born on April 15, 1969, in Santa Clara, Calif. and has two sons, Jackson and Grayson.

CHAD MORTON

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/RUNNING BACKS

NFL EXPERIENCE: 15th YEAR SEAHAWKS EXPERIENCE: 10th YEAR

MORTON'S COACHING CAREER

2009	Green Bay Packers	Coaching Administrator
2010-13	Green Bay Packers	Special Teams Assistant
2014	Seattle Seahawks	Assistant Special Teams
2015-16	Seattle Seahawks	Asst. RBs/Asst. Special Teams
2017-21	Seattle Seahawks	Running Backs
2022-	Seattle Seahawks	Run Game Coordinator/Running Backs

Hired on March 17, 2014, as assistant special teams coach, Morton joined the Seahawks after spending five seasons in the same role with the Green Bay Packers. In 2015, he began work with the running backs, and took charge of the running backs room in 2017. In 2022, Morton added the title of run game coordinator.

Last season, Morton's group opened the 2022 season with Rashaad Penny getting off to a strong start, including a 151-yard, two-touchdown performance against Detroit (10/2). But after averaging 6.1 yards per carry through four-plus games, Penny suffered a season-ending leg injury in Seattle's Week 5 game in New Orleans. Rookie Kenneth Walker III scored on a 69-yard run after taking over for Penny in that Week 5 game, and went on to lead all NFL rookies in rushing yards (1,050), yards from scrimmage (1,215), and touchdowns (9). Walker, the second rookie in franchise history to rush for 1,000 yards, along with Curt Warner, finished a close second in AP Offensive Rookie of the Year voting. Seattle's rushing attack led the NFL with 176.0 yards per game the final three weeks.

In 2021, Chris Carson was limited to just four games due to a neck injury. Alex Collins started six games before Penny put together one of the best stretches of rushing production in franchise history, rushing for 135 yards or more in four of Seattle's final five games, including 170 yards and two touchdowns in Week 17 (vs, Detroit, 1/2), and 190 yards and a score in Week 18 (at Arizona 1/9). Penny's 671 yards over the final five weeks of the season were the most in the NFL over that span, and despite having only 119 carries during the season, his eight rushes of 25 or more yards were tied for most in the NFL (Jonathan Taylor). Penny's 6.3 yards-per-carry average was the best in the NFL.

In 2020, Carson was one of only three players (Kareem Hunt, Alvin Kamara) with four-plus touchdowns (5) and four-plus receiving touchdowns (4) despite playing only 12 games. Carson also set career highs in yards per attempt (4.8), catches (37), and receiving yards (287). Carlos Hyde, DeeJay Dallas and Travis Homer all played significant roles and Penny returned to the field (at Washington, 12/20) for the first time in more than a year after suffering an ACL injury on 12/8/19.

In 2019, Carson ranked 5th in the NFL in rushing yards with a career-high of 1,230 - his second consecutive 1,000 yard season - and added seven rushing touchdowns. He also recorded 37 receptions for 266 yards and three TDs before injuring his hip in week 16 and being placed on injured reserve. Morton's group also lost Penny and C.J. Prosise to IR, forcing sixth-round pick Homer to step up at the end of the season, in addition to the team re-signing Marshawn Lynch in week 17, who ended up scoring a touchdown in week 17 vs. the 49ers and then three more touchdowns in the playoffs.

In 2018, returning from a broken leg suffered in his rookie season, Carson became Seattle's first 1,000-yard rusher since 2014 and just the sixth player in franchise history to accomplish the feat with a career-high 1,151 yards (5th NFL). Seattle's ground game ranked no. 1 in the league (160.0 ypg), rushing for 2,560 yards (third-most in franchise history) and was the fourth team in NFL history to have a 1,000-yard rusher (Carson) and three 300-yard rushers (Mike Davis, Penny, QB Russell Wilson), becoming the first team since the 2001 Steelers.

In 2015, Morton helped the emergence of rookie Tyler Lockett become a first-team AP All-Pro as a return specialist. Lockett became the second player in NFL history (Hall of Famer Gale Sayers) to return a punt and kickoff for touchdowns and have five receiving touchdowns in a single-season. Lockett returned a kickoff 105 yards for a franchise-record and his 1,915 combined yards are the fourth-most in a season in franchise history, and his 139 punt return yards at Arizona set the club record.

Morton's contributions in Green Bay affected various aspects of the return game, where Randall Cobb was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl as a kick returner in 2013. Cobb became the first player in NFL history to have 900-plus kickoff return yards (964) and receiving yards (954) in the same season.

Cobb was also named a Pro Bowl alternate and to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team for his efforts as the team's primary returner in 2011. He finished with 34 kickoff returns for 941 yards and a touchdown, and finished the season ranked second in the NFL (first among rookies) with a 27.7 average.

A seven-year NFL veteran as a player, Morton was a running back and kick/punt returner who began his career with New Orleans in 2000 as a fifth-round draft pick. Serving primarily as a returner as a pro, Morton tallied 5,401 career kickoff-return yards and three kick-return scores, as well as 1,431 career punt-return yards and one score, in 93 career games. He was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate as a returner in 2002 and 2005.

He is the only player in NFL history to return a kickoff for a touchdown in regulation and overtime in the same game (at Buffalo, 9/8/02) and joins Chicago's Dave Williams (at Detroit, 11/27/80) as the only players in NFL history to return a kickoff for a touchdown in overtime. In 2000 with the Saints, Morton tied the NFL single-game playoff record with 13 receptions against the Minnesota Vikings.

Morton was an All-Pac-10 selection at Southern California, where he served as the team's primary running back his final two seasons. He led the team with 1,141 yards and 15 touchdowns on 262 carries as a senior, and he ranks 12th on the Trojans' all-time rushing list with 2,511 career yards. He graduated from USC with a degree in sociology.

Born on April 4, 1977, in Torrance, Calif., Morton attended South High School, where he played running back and also ran track. His older brother, Johnnie, played wide receiver for 12 seasons (1994-2005) in the NFL, including eight with the Detroit Lions.

Morton and his wife, Tamra, have two sons, Avery and Aiden, and two daughters, Alexis and Ariella.

Greg Olson was hired as Seattle's quarterbacks coach on February 21, 2023, after finishing his third stint with the Rams in 2022 as their senior offensive assistant. He previously served as the Rams quarterbacks coach in 2017 and offensive coordinator (2006-07). He returned to Los Angeles from Las Vegas, where he was the Raiders offensive coordinator from 2018-21, giving him 13 years of experience as an offensive coordinator at the NFL level.

During the 2022 season, Olson helped QB Baker Mayfield win his third career Offensive Player of the Week Award after making his Rams debut just two days after joining the team. Mayfield completed 22 of 25 passes for 230 yards and threw one touchdown on Thursday Night Football against the Las Vegas Raiders. Mayfield led the Rams on a 98-yard touchdown drive to win the game. According to Elias Sports Bureau, that was the longest go-ahead touchdown drive to begin in the final two minutes of a game in the last 45 years. Olson also helped the Rams offense lead the NFL in fourth down conversion rate (78.9%). TE Tyler Higbee broke the Rams single-season franchise record for receptions by a tight end (72) and became the Rams' all-time leader in touchdowns by a tight end (20), while RB Cam Akers became the first Rams running back to have three consecutive 100+ yard rushing performances (Weeks 16-18) in the same season since Todd Gurley in 2015.

Under Olson's guidance from 2018-21, the Raiders offense ranked 10th in yards per game (361.8), ninth in yards per play (5.73), seventh in passing yards per game (253.2), and third in fourth down conversion rate (61.3%).

In 2017, Olson helped 2016 No. 1 overall pick Jared Goff to a breakout second NFL season – Goff completed 62.1 percent of his passes for 3,804 yards with 28 touchdowns and only seven interceptions.

In Olson's first season with the Jaguars in 2015, he helped the offense improve from the 32nd-ranked unit in 2014 to the 14th-ranked offense. Olson orchestrated a Jaguars offense that scored nearly eight more points per game in his first season in Jacksonville than the previous campaign, with the 376 points being the fifth-highest point total in a single season in franchise history. Olson's high-scoring 2015 Jacksonville offense also saw the team score a club record 51 points in a match-up with the Colts in Week 15. The Jaguars scored 44 touchdowns in 2015, the third-most in a single season in franchise history. QB Blake Bortles established career-highs with 4,428 yards and 35 touchdowns in his second NFL season.

Prior to his time in Jacksonville, Olson was the offensive coordinator with the Oakland Raiders for two seasons from 2013-14. In 2014, he worked closely with Raiders' first-round pick, QB Derek Carr. Carr threw for 3,270 yards and 21 touchdowns in his rookie campaign under Olson. Additionally, Olson worked with Raiders QB Terrelle Pryor, who set the single-season franchise record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 576.

Olson spent four seasons with the Buccaneers from 2008-11, with the final three seasons coming as offensive coordinator. Olson helped develop QB Josh Freeman, the Bucs' first round draft pick in 2009. In Freeman's first three seasons as the club's starting quarterback, he threw for nearly 9,000 yards with 51 touchdowns.

In 2010, Olson's second season at the helm of the Tampa Bay offense, the Buccaneers were the NFL's youngest team, but still went on to set franchise records in yards per play, yards per pass play, passer rating and fewest interceptions thrown. Additionally, the Buccaneers offense finished in the top-five in franchise history in points scored, total offense and third down percentage.

After being elevated to offensive coordinator during training camp of the 2009 season, Olson's offense improved throughout the year. Freeman, while working alongside Olson, set Buccaneers rookie records for touchdown passes and passing yards. Olson arrived with the Buccaneers after spending two seasons as the Rams offensive coordinator from 2006-07.

Olson's time in St. Louis was highlighted by the 2006 campaign when the Rams became only the fourth team in league history to produce a 4,000-yard passer (Marc Bulger), a 1,500-yard rusher (Steven Jackson) and a pair of 1,000-yard receivers (Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce). Bulger, Holt and Bruce were subsequently named to the Pro Bowl that year as the Rams finished with the NFL's No. 6 total offense and No. 3 passing offense.

Before working with the Rams, Olson spent two seasons with the Detroit Lions, first as quarterbacks coach before being elevated to offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach midway through the 2005 season. In the final three games of the 2004 season, Olson took over play-calling duties in Detroit and helped the Lions average 403.6 yards per game.

Olson came to Detroit after working one season as quarterbacks coach for the Chicago Bears in 2003. Prior to his time in Chicago, Olson spent one season as tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator at Purdue.

Olson began his NFL coaching career as the San Francisco 49ers quarterbacks coach in 2001. In his lone season with the 49ers, Olson helped QB Jeff Garcia throw for a career-high 32 touchdowns and career-bests in completion percentage and passer rating.

Prior to his break into the NFL, Olson was the quarterbacks coach at Purdue, where he played a prominent role in the development of future Super Bowl-winning QB Drew Brees. Brees was a Heisman Trophy finalist in 1999 and 2000 under Olson and ended his career as the Big Ten's all-time leader in passing yards, touchdown passes, total yards, completion percentage, completions and attempts.

Olson was an assistant at Idaho for three seasons after spending four seasons at his alma mater, Central Washington, from 1990-93. At Central Washington, he worked with QB Jon Kitna, who would go on to have a 14-year career in the NFL. He began his coaching career under Dennis Erickson, serving as a graduate assistant at Washington State in 1987.

Olson played quarterback collegiately at Spokane Falls Junior College before attending Central Washington from 1983-84.

Greg Olson and his wife, Lissa, are the parents of twin children, Kenny and Grayce. Kenny plays football at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo and Grayce plays volleyball at UCLA.

Hired on February 22, 2022, to be the team's defensive pass game coordinator/defensive backs coach, Karl Scott enters the 2023 season in a new role, now the team's defensive pass game coordinator/senior defensive assistant. Scott served one season (2021) as the defensive backs coach with the Vikings in his inaugural season in the NFL. Prior to Minnesota, he served as Alabama's cornerbacks coach from 2018-20.

Last season, Scott helped lead the rapid development of rookie cornerbacks Coby Bryant, Tariq Woolen, and first-year starter Michael Jackson. Woolen set a rookie franchise record and tied for first in the NFL with six interceptions while being named to the NFC Pro Bowl Games roster. He become the first Seattle defensive rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since 2005 (LB Lofa Tatupu). Woolen was also the first rookie since 2000 and first player since 2016 (Marcus Peters) with at least 15 passes defensed, six interceptions and three fumble recoveries in a single season. Quandre Diggs was named to the NFC Pro Bowl Games for the third-consecutive season, while registering four interceptions and became the only player in the NFL to record at least three interceptions in each of the past six seasons (2017-22).

Under Scott's guidance, Seattle made improvements in the passing game in 2022, including completions allowed per game (31st in NFL in 2021 to 10th in 2022), Passing Yards Allowed Per Game (31st to 13th), Passing 1st Downs Allowed (32nd to 15th).

Scott played a big role in helping Harrison Smith garner his sixth Pro Bowl selection in 2021. Under Scott's leadership, Smith also tied his career high in sacks with 3.0, while registering 114 tackles, seven passes defensed and one interception. With Xavier Woods playing on a one-year deal, Scott assisted Woods in revitalizing his career, tying for the team-lead in interceptions with three and being the only Viking to play 100% of the team's snaps in 2021.

In 2020, Scott helped Alabama to a National Championship as the defense allowed just 19.4 points per game, ranking 13th in the nation. The Crimson Tide ranked third in the SEC in pass defense and opposing quarterbacks completed just 58.1% of passes, throwing 12 interceptions. Alabama finished the 2020 season leading the SEC in pass efficiency defense and scoring defense. Under Scott, CB Patrick Surtain II led the SEC with 13 passes defended and 12 pass breakups, en route to unanimous All-America honors and being drafted in the first round (ninth overall).

Scott tutored 2020 second round NFL draftee (51st overall) Trevon Diggs on one side and Surtain II on the other while senior Shyheim Carter manned the star position in 2019. Diggs had three interceptions, 37 tackles and eight pass breakups. Surtain II made 42 stops with two interceptions and two forced fumbles, while Carter added 43 tackles and seven pass breakups. Under Scott's direction, Alabama ranked fourth nationally and first in the SEC in pass efficiency defense (109.75), finishing with 17 interceptions and 50 pass breakups.

In 2018, Scott was charged with replacing five starters in the secondary from the Tide's 2017 National Championship team with Minkah Fitzpatrick, Ronnie Harrison, Anthony Averett, Levi Wallace and Tony Brown all off to the NFL.

The completely overhauled secondary turned in a quality season, ranking 26th nationally in pass efficiency defense (115.79) and 33rd in pass yards allowed (198.3). Led by consensus All-America safety Deionte Thompson, the Tide allowed just 22 passing touchdowns while intercepting 15 passes. Thompson was second on the team in tackles with 79 while picking off two passes and breaking up six more. Safety Xavier McKinney also excelled at safety with 73 stops, six tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks and two inteceptions. Surtain II earned freshman All-America honors on the opposite side with 37 tackles and an interceptions while Carter played the nickel and added 44 tackles and two inteceptions.

Scott spent the 2016-17 seasons as the secondary coach at Texas Tech before being named the defensive coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette in late December of 2017. In 2017, his unit posted an impressive turnaround, helping produce 29 turnovers, including 14 inteceptions. He mentored All-Big 12 selections in Jah'Shawn Johnson and Justus Parker.

Prior to his time at Texas Tech, Scott spent one season (2015) as the safeties coach at Louisiana Tech under head coach Skip Holtz. He helped the Bulldogs to a 9-4 record and a second-place finish in the Western Division of Conference USA. Louisiana Tech defeated Arkansas State in the New Orleans Bowl as the Bulldogs finished eighth nationally in defensive touchdowns after forcing 22 turnovers, including 13 interceptions.

Scott worked at Southeastern Louisiana for three years, serving as the defensive coordinator in 2014 and linebackers coach in 2012-13. During his tenure with the Lions, he helped lead the program to back-to-back Southland Conference Championships (2013-14) and two NCAA Football Championship Division playoff appearances.

His 2014 defense at Southeastern led the Southland Conference in total defense while ranking seventh in the FCS. The Lions also led the nation in pass efficiency defense (94.3), and ranked fifth in red zone defense, eighth in scoring defense (17.7 ppg) and 11th in turnovers (28).

Isiah Corbett and Harlan Miller were two mainstays on Scott's defense at Southeastern Louisiana, both earning All-America honors in 2014, while seven other defenders – Denzel Thompson, Jacob Newman, Tyler Stoddard, A.J. Bowen, Drew Misita, Jordan Batiste and Micah Eugene – joined the pair on the All-Southland Conference teams.

Scott's linebackers unit was a key factor in Southeastern's 2013 Southland Conference championship campaign. His corps benefited from the emergence of Cqulin Hubert, who was named Southland Defensive Player of the Year after recording a team-leading 90 tackles, including 11 tackles for loss.

Before his time at Southeastern Louisiana, Scott served as recruiting coordinator/defensive backs/linebackers coach for four years at Tusculum College from 2008-11.

He made an immediate impact at Tusculum, as he mentored two all-conference selections in Justin Scott and Jarvis Littlejohn. Scott collected all-region honors following the 2008 season, establishing new school records for single-season (22) and career (51) tackles for loss while finishing the season with 113 tackles and 277 for his career.

Scott's coaching career began at Delta State as a graduate assistant in 2007. In his lone season at DSU, he helped lead the Statesman to a 10-2 record, a no. 10 final national ranking, Gulf South Conference championship and NCAA Division II playoff appearance.

A native of Houston, Scott played at McMurry University in Abilene, Texas, where he earned his degree in exercise and sports studies in 2007. Scott and his wife Taron have two daughters, Kina Bailey and Kari Mae.

Carl Smith re-joined the Seattle staff on February 24, 2021, and enters his 34th season as an NFL assistant coach. He returns after two years away from the Seahawks as he served as an assistant coach with the Houston Texans. He owns more than 43 years of overall coaching experience and has been a part of six division titles, two conference championships and won a Super Bowl.

As offensive consultant for Houston in 2020, Smith watch the league's fourth-ranked passing attack led by three-time Pro Bowler QB Deshaun Watson. Watson had a career-year in attempts (544), completions (382), completion percentage (70.22), yards (4,823), touchdowns (33), fewest interceptions (7) and passer rating (112.4). He also added 444 rushing yards, the second-most of his career. With his play, Watson qualified for the all-time NFL passer rating rankings and places second in NFL history in passer rating (104.5), home passer rating (106.8) and road passer rating (102.1).

In 2019, the Texans went 10-6 and captured the AFC South title. With Smith on staff, Watson directed a Texans offense that tied the team record for most total touchdowns scored (46) in a single season in team history (2009, 2012) and set franchise records for highest redzone touchdown percentage (64.2) and fewest three-and-outs (24). He was named to a second consecutive Pro Bowl after a stellar season that saw him win AFC Offensive Player of the Month in October and a franchise-record three player of the week awards.

Watson logged five games with over 250 passing yards and 40 rushing yards on the season, which led the NFL and tied Randall Cunningham (five in 1988) for the most in a season in NFL history. In Week 5 vs. Atlanta, Watson posted the highest quarterback rating by a player in a game in franchise history (158.3) and set a single-game career high with 426 passing yards. As a team, Houston scored the second-most points in a game (53) in franchise history and scored over 50 points for just the second time. His performance made him the first player to throw for at least 400 yards and five touchdowns with five-or-fewer incompletions in a single game in NFL history. He also tallied a franchise-record seven rushing touchdowns in 2019, which only trailed Bills QB Josh Allen among quarterbacks.

Smith previously served as the associate head coach of the Seattle Seahawks in 2018 after spending the prior seven seasons as the Seahawks quarterbacks coach (2011-17).

From 2012-17, Smith mentored Seahawks QB Russell Wilson to become one of the most successful quarterbacks in the NFL, winning Super Bowl XLVIII as the third-youngest starting quarterback in NFL history. Smith guided Wilson to 73 victories (regular season and postseason), which marks the most victories in a player's first six seasons in league history. Under Smith, Wilson threw the third-most touchdown passes (161) in a player's first six seasons in NFL history, trailing only Dan Marino and Peyton Manning.

Wilson became the first player in NFL history to record a 100.0 passer rating in each of his first two seasons in the league, and broke his own franchise record (101.2 rating in 2013) with a league-leading 110.1 passer rating in 2015. Wilson also became the first quarterback in NFL history with a winning record in each of his first six seasons.

In 2016, Wilson tied his career high and a Seahawks franchise record with 34 touchdown passes and had a hand in 37 of Seattle's 38 offensive touchdowns while being named to his fifth-career Pro Bowl. Wilson led Seattle to another double-digit win season while setting career highs in attempts (546), completions (franchise-record 353) and yards (franchise-record 4,219).

Wilson finished the final seven games of the 2015 season with a132.8 rating and became the only player in NFL history to pass for at least 24 touchdowns and have one or fewer interceptions in a seven-game span in a single-season. The 34 made FGs tied a franchise record (Todd Peterson - 1999). Seattle scored two touchdowns on special teams, the unit's first time finding the end zone since 2017. Nick Bellore ranked third in the NFL with 15 special teams tackles.

With Smith's help, the 2019 Texans turned in one of the best all-around special teams performances in team history. Janikowski also concluded the season with 414 career field goals, the ninth-most in NFL history, and moved into 10th on the NFL's all-time scoring list with 1,799 points scored. Smith also helped P Marquette King earn Associated Press All-Pro second-team honors after recording 81 punts for 3,937 yards (48.6 avg.) while placing 34 punts inside the 20-yard line.

In his first season in Oakland, Smith helped the special teams unit lead the league in kickoff return yards (1,268) and total return yards (1,540). Prior to joining the Raiders, Smith spent 2012-14 with the San Francisco 49ers, helping produce one of the top units in the NFL. During that time span, the 49ers ranked in the top 10 in field goals made (ninth, 86) and opponents punt return average (ninth, 8.3). NFL CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

• Finished 2022 season with 84 catches for 1,033 yards and nine touchdowns and is the only player in the NFL with at least eight TD receptions in each of the past five seasons (2018-22).

• Second player in franchise history (Steve Largent) to record four-straight 1,000 receiving yard seasons (2019-22).

• In 2022, moved in to third-place on Seattle's all-time receptions and receiving yards list, and moved into second place on its receiving touchdowns list.

• Recorded a receiving touchdown in six-consecutive games in 2022, a franchise record, and his 18 career 100-yard games rank third in Seattle history.

• Set a career-high with 1,175 receiving yards in 2021, the seventh player in franchise history to record at least 1,100 receiving yards in a season. Became the second player in franchise history to eclipse 1,000 receiving yards three-consecutive seasons (Steve Largent, 1978-81, 1983-86). Finished the season with 73 receptions, fifth-most Seattle's all-time receptions list. It marked the third-consecutive season of 70+ catches.

• Against Tennessee (9/19/21), led team for second-straight week with 178 receiving yards. Became the fourth player since 1990 to record multiple touchdown receptions of at least 60 yards in his team's first two games of a season (Steve Smith Sr. in 2007, Randy Moss in 2005, and Jerry Rice in 1991).

• Established the franchise record with 100 receptions in 2020 (94, Doug Baldwin in 2016 and Bobby Engram in 2007), topping his previous career high of 82 set in 2019. Totaled 1,054 yards eclipsing 1,000 for a second-straight season, becoming the sixth player in club history to do so.

• Set career-high with 15 catches at Arizona (10/25/20), tying Steve Largent's franchise record of 15 vs. Detroit (10/18/87). Had 200 yards in that same game, joining Largent (261 vs. Detroit, 10/18/87) as the only players in franchise history with 200 receiving yards in a game. It was also his second three-touchdown game of the season (vs. Dallas, 9/27).

• Along with DK Metcalf, became just the second set of Seahawks teammates to each have 1,000 yards in the same season (Brian Blades, Joey Galloway in 1995). Tied Metcalf for team lead with 10 touchdowns. Also became the first set of receivers to post 80-plus receptions each in a season in club history and gave Seattle two receivers with 10-plus touchdowns each in a season for the second time in club history (Steve Largent, Daryl Turner in 1984).

• Led the Seahawks in 2019 with career-highs in receptions (82) and yards (1,057). Had four 100-yard receiving games, in addition to having 9 catches for 136 yards at Green Bay in the divisional round. Moved into eighth place on Seahawks all-time receiving yards list ahead of Koren Robinson (3,567). Had career games of 11 catches for 154 yards (9/22 vs. New Orleans) and 13 catches for 152 yards (11/3 vs. Tampa Bay).

• Set career-highs in receptions (57), yards (965) and touchdowns (10) in 2018. His 10 scores ranked sixth in the NFL and when Russell Wilson targeted him, the two recorded a perfect 158.3 passer rating (57 for 70, 81.4%). The Saints Drew Brees and Robert Meacham were the last to accomplish that feat in 2009 (min. 50 att.).

• Recorded the second-longest rush by a wide receiver in franchise history (seventh-longest overall), on a 75-yard touchdown run vs. Carolina (12/4/16).

• Became the second player in NFL history (Hall of Famer Gale Sayers) with at least five receiving touchdowns, a kickoff return TD and a punt return TD in a single-season (2015).

• His 51 receptions were the fifth-most single-season receptions by a rookie in franchise history.

• His 1,915 combined yards gained were the fourth-most combined yards gained in a single-season (2015) in franchise history and the franchise rookie-record, and his 139 punt return yards are the most punt return yards in a single-game in franchise history (at Arizona, 1/3/16).

COLLEGE: After COVID-19 wiped out Lenoir-Rhyne's 2020 season, in an abbreviated 2021 spring season, Young had 14 catches for 218 yards and two touchdowns. A knee injury limited him to five games as a senior, but in those games he had 303 yards and four touchdowns on 25 catches, giving him 1,176 yards and 16 touchdowns on 73 career catches in 43 career games played. Young also finished his college career with 88 rush attempts for 658 yards and eight touchdowns Against Tusculum in the SAC Championship, Young went off for nine catches and 166 yards with one touchdown. The 166 yards represented the 10th most in a single game in the 101-year history of LR Football and the fourth-most in the NCAA Era (1993-current).

PERSONAL: Attended Middle Creek High. Recorded 29 catches, 502 yards and five touchdowns and only had three losses in his career. Earned Academic All-Conference honors.

* Rookie

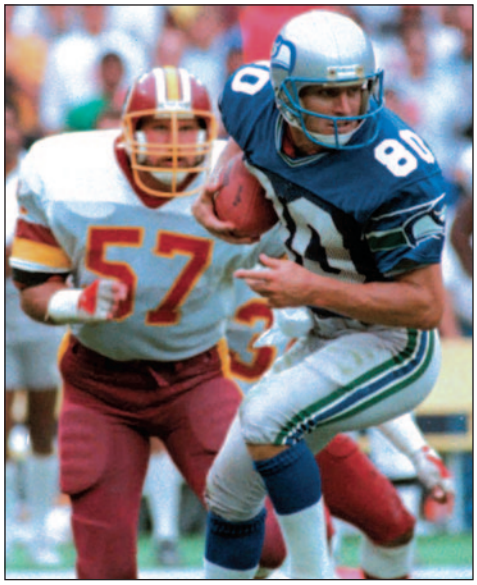
STEVE LARGENT, WR
1976-89

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Steve Largent became the first Seahawks player to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, January 28, 1995. Largent was formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, July 29, along with Jim Finks, Henry Jordan, Lee Roy Selmon, and Kellen Winslow. He was presented into the Hall of Fame by Seahawks' Vice President Gary Wright. Largent was the 23rd player to be elected in his first year of eligibility.

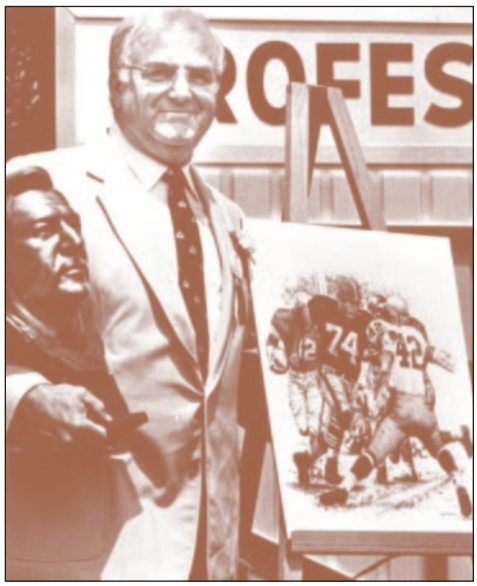
NFL Records: Concluded his 14 National Football League seasons with league career records for receptions, 819; yards, 13,089; touchdowns, 100; consecutive games with a reception, 177; 50-catch seasons, 10; and 1,000-yard seasons, 8. Became only the second player in NFL history to be the career leader in receptions, yards and touchdowns at the same time joining Green Bay's Don Hutson (1945). Ranked third all-time at the time of his retirement with 40-career 100-yard games, trailing Don Maynard (50) and Lance Alworth (41).

Pro Career: Finished in the AFC's (NFC in 1976) top 10 in receptions 10 times in his first 12 seasons, failing only in 1977 and 1982, and in the top-five seven times. Led the AFC in receptions in 1978 with 71 and finished second in 1981 (75) and 1987 (58), and was third in the NFC in 1976 (54). The only NFC wide receiver to catch more passes than Largent in 1976 was Dallas' Drew Pearson (58). Largent's total did lead all rookie wide receivers. Finished in the NFL's top 10 in receiving yards seven times, including a first-place finish in 1985, and a second in 1978, missing the lead by one yard. Missed only 10 games in his career due to injury, including six in 1989 with a broken elbow. Selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game seven times, after the 1978, 1979, 1981, 1984, 1985, 1986, and 1987 seasons. Unable to play in the 1979 game because of a wrist injury. Set the Pro Bowl career yardage record with 236 and had 17 Pro Bowl receptions. Originally drafted in the fourth round in 1976 by the Houston Oilers. Was waived by the Oilers on August 24, recalled, and traded to the Seahawks for an eighth-round 1977 draft choice on August 26. The Oilers used that choice to select wide receiver Steve Davis from the University of Georgia.

Seahawks Career: Led the team in both receptions and yards in each of the team's first 12 seasons. Voted by his teammates as the Seahawks' Most Valuable Player after the 1977, 1979, 1981, 1985, and 1987 seasons. Was also elected Offensive Captain from 1979-83 and 1985-89. Third in games played (200) but has more starts (197) than any other player in team history. He was the first player voted into the team's Ring of Honor on December 23, 1989.



Personal: Represented the 1st District of the State of Oklahoma for four terms. Was elected to the United States House of Representatives on November 8, 1994, and sworn in on November 29. Re-elected to a second two-year term in 1996, and resigned following the first year of his fourth term and sought election as the governor of Oklahoma in November, 2002. Attended Putnam City High School in Oklahoma City, Okla., where he lettered in football and baseball. Steve and his wife, Terry, have three sons, Kyle, Kelly, and Kramer, and a daughter, Casie.



MIKE McCORMACK
1982-88

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Mike McCormack was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 28, 1984. He was one of four players honored in 1984 along with Arnie Weinmeister, Willie Brown and Charley Taylor. McCormack played with the Cleveland Browns from 1954-1962 and served as head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles (1973-75), Baltimore Colts (1980-81) and Seattle Seahawks (1982). He also served as president and general manager of the Seahawks. In 1993, he was hired by the newly formed Carolina Panthers as their team president and general manager. He retired from the Panthers' organization in 1997.

Pro Career: One of the game's greatest offensive tackles, he began his pro football career with the NFL's 1951 New York Yanks where as a rookie he earned the starting right tackle spot. That year he earned the first of six trips to the Pro Bowl, before being called into military service. The Baltimore Colts, who acquired his rights before the start of the 1953 season, traded him to the Cleveland Browns in a massive 15-player deal. Even though the Browns knew McCormack would not be available for a full year, he was the key man in the trade. Coach Paul Brown always considered it one of his wisest personnel moves. In his first season in Cleveland, McCormack, a former University of Kansas star and Chicago native, was asked to fill the middle guard position that had been vacated by the retiring Bill Willis on the defensive unit. It was a tall order, considering Willis would himself be elected to the Hall of Fame. McCormack, not surprisingly, was up to the challenge. He quickly became an important factor on an excellent Cleveland defensive team. McCormack enjoyed perhaps his most memorable individual moment on the defensive team when, in the 1954 NFL Championship Game, he stole the ball from Detroit Lions quarterback Bobby Layne to set up one of the early touchdowns in a 56-10 Cleveland rout. But it was as an offensive tackle that McCormack made his lasting mark in pro football. Mike was the Browns' offensive right tackle for eight years from 1955 through 1962. During that period, the Browns' forward wall played a major role in assuring a balanced offensive approach and McCormack, equally adept as a blocker on rushing plays and as a quarterback protector, was a stabilizing factor throughout the period.

Seahawks Career: In 1982, McCormack joined the Seattle Seahawks as director of football operations, eventually becoming president and general manager the following season. He also served as the Seahawks' interim head coach for the remainder of the 1982 season when Jack Patera was fired after the first two games. McCormack took over during the 57-day players strike and led the team to a 4-3 record. He then returned to his management position when the Seahawks hired Chuck Knox as their new head coach in 1983. Under McCormack's leadership, the Seahawks enjoyed the franchise's finest years until the mid 2000's. During his seven seasons with the team, Seattle reached the postseason four times, including the AFC Championship Game in 1983.

Personal: McCormack passed away on November 15, 2013. He was survived by his wife, Ann, and four children; Michael, Tim, Molly and Colleen. He was a member of the University of Kansas' all-time team and served as co-captain of the 1950 Jayhawks team.

FRANCO HARRIS, RB

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Franco Harris was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, August 4, 1990, along with Buck Buchanan, Bob Griese, Ted Hendricks, Jack Lambert, Tom Landy and Bob St. Clair.

Pro Career: Harris began his pro football career as the Pittsburgh Steelers No. 1 pick and the 13th player selected in the 1972 NFL Draft. For 12 seasons, the 6-2, 230-pounder from Penn State was a big-yardage running back, a key man in the powerful Pittsburgh offensive machine. Harris established himself as a future superstar when he became only the fourth rookie in NFL annals to rush for 1,000 yards. He gained additional attention by being on the receiving end of the famous "Immaculate Reception" pass from Terry Bradshaw that gave the Steelers their first-ever playoff win, a 13-7 victory over the Oakland Raiders. In his 13 seasons, the last of which was spent with the Seattle Seahawks in 1984, Harris rushed 2,949 times for 12,120 yards and 91 touchdowns. He rushed for 1,000 yards or more eight seasons and for more than 100 yards in 47 games. His career rushing total and his combined net yardage figure of 14,622 both ranked as the third highest marks in pro football history at the time of his retirement. Was an All-AFC choice in 1972, 1975, 1976, and 1977 and first- or second-team All-Pro six times. He was selected to nine Pro Bowls. Harris played in five AFC championships – missing a sixth because of injury – and four Super Bowls. In Super Bowl IX, when the Steelers won their first-ever league title with a 16-6 victory over Minnesota, Harris rushed for 158 yards, compared to just 17 yards rushing for the entire Vikings team. He was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Harris held numerous Super Bowl and postseason game records by the end of his career. The most notable include 24 points and 354 yards rushing in four Super Bowls and 17 touchdowns and 1,556 yards rushing in 19 playoff games.

Seahawks Career: Harris played his final NFL season in Seattle in 1984. He played in eight games with six starts and rushed 68 times for 170 yards with one catch for 3 yards.

Personal: Born in Fort Dix, N.J., on March 7, 1950.

CARL ELLER, DE

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Carl Eller was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Sunday, August 8, 2004, along with Bob Brown, John Elway and Barry Sanders. He was presented into the Hall of Fame by his son, Regis.

Pro Career: Selected in the 1st round of NFL Draft by Minnesota and AFL Draft by Buffalo in 1964. Eller quickly established himself at left defensive end on the Vikings "Purple People Eaters" defensive line. He amassed 44 sacks from 1975-1977 and named first- or second-team All-NFL each season from 1967-1973, playing in six Pro Bowls. He also was effective in blocking kicks and, during his career he recovered 23 opponents' fumbles, the third best mark in NFL annals at the time of his retirement. It was Eller who caused the now infamous fumble that led to teammate Jim Marshall's wrong-way run for a safety in 1964 in a game against the San Francisco 49ers. The Vikings won the 1969 NFL championship and NFC crowns in 1973, 1974, and 1976 and played in four Super Bowls.

Seahawks Career: The 16-year NFL veteran of 225 games played his final NFL season in Seattle, playing in all 16 games with 26 tackles and 3.0 sacks.

Personal: Born January 25, 1942, in Winston-Salem, N.C.

WARREN MOON, QB
1997-98

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Warren Moon was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 4, 2006, the day before the Seahawks played the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XL. Moon was formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Sunday, August 6, along with Troy Aikman, Harry Carson, John Madden, Reggie White and Rayfield Wright. He was presented into the Hall of Fame by friend, agent and business associate Leigh Steinberg. Moon was the first African-American quarterback to be inducted.

Pro Career: Prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, some NFL scouts suggested that since University of Washington quarterback Warren Moon had played in a rollout rather than a drop-back passing offense, he would be a mid-round pick. Others speculated that since only one African American quarterback, James Harris, had achieved any measurable success in the NFL, Moon would have to play some other position. Regardless of which misguided reason motivated NFL scouts, Moon remained confident of his abilities and opted to sign with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League. He went on to lead the Eskimos to an unprecedented five consecutive Grey Cup victories. Eventually, Moon returned to the United States to play for the Houston Oilers in 1984. He racked up nearly 50,000 passing yards in 17 NFL seasons. Moon set a new club record with 3,338 yards passing in his first year with Houston, a mark he would break four more times. In 1986, when the Oilers installed the run-and-shoot offense, Moon's quarterback skills finally became apparent to all. The wide-open offense showcased Moon's strong arm, running skills, and big-play ability. In 1990, Moon led the league with 4,689 passing yards. He also led the league in attempts (584), completions (362), and touchdowns (33), and tied Dan Marino's NFL record with nine 300-yard games in a season. The following year, he again led the league in passing yards 4,690. At the same time, he joined Hall of Fame quarterbacks Marino and Dan Fouts as the only quarterbacks to post back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons. Moon also established new NFL records that season with 655 attempts and 404 completions. Moon was traded to the Minnesota Vikings before the 1994 season. In his debut season, he passed for 4,264 yards and led the team to the playoffs. In his second season in Minnesota, he again passed for more than 4,200 yards. Moon moved on to the Seattle Seahawks as a free agent in 1997 where the veteran star set franchise records for completions (313) and yards passing (3,678) and earned his ninth Pro Bowl selection. Injuries limited his play in 1998. In 1999, Moon joined the Kansas City Chiefs and spent two seasons as a backup there before retiring. Despite spending his first six professional seasons in the CFL, Moon ranked third all-time in NFL passing yardage and fourth in touchdown passes thrown at the time of his retirement.

Seahawks Career: The 17-year NFL veteran played for the Seahawks from 1997-98, setting the franchise record for passing yards in one season with 3,678 in 1997, since surpassed by Matt Hasselbeck and Russell Wilson. His franchise-record 313 completions in 1997 were also surpassed by Hasselbeck and Wilson. He holds the club record for most consecutive completions (17).

Personal: Named the NFL's Man of the Year in 1989 for his work in the community, Moon established the Crescent Moon Foundation in 1989 to raise money for college academic scholarships in Seattle, Los Angeles, Houston, and Minneapolis/ St. Paul and also has worked as an ambassador for the NFL promoting the game of football both nationally and internationally to young people.

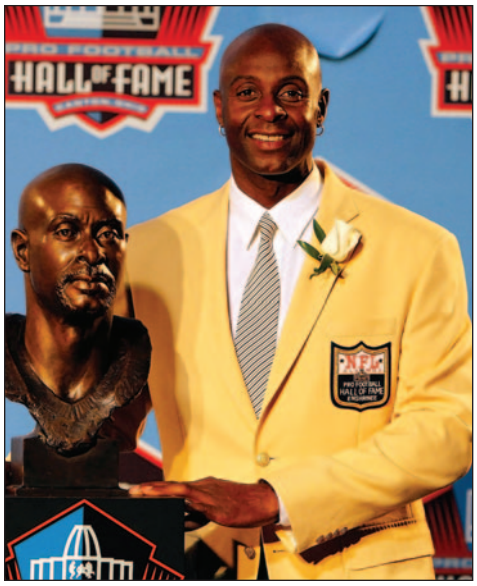
JOHN RANDLE, DT
2001-03

Pro Football Hall of Fame: John Randle was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 6, 2010, along with Russ Grimm, Rickey Jackson, Dick LeBeau, Floyd Little, Jerry Rice and Emmitt Smith. He was inducted on Saturday, August 7, 2010.

Pro Career: John Randle, a Little All-America from Texas A&I, signed as an undrafted free agent with the Minnesota Vikings in 1990. He embarked on an impressive streak from 1992-01 of 183 games played and 140 starts before a knee injury forced him out of a game. In the 1993 season, Randle registered 12.5 sacks, amassed 59 tackles and forced three fumbles to earn All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl invitation for the first time. It began a string of six straight All-Pro and Pro Bowl seasons for Randle. He improved his sack total again in 1994 with a NFC-high 13.5 sacks. Randle recorded perhaps his finest season in 1997 when he led the NFL with 15.5 sacks and also had a career-high 71 tackles. In all, Randle amassed 137.5 sacks during his 14-season career. He led the Vikings in sacks nine times and the Seahawks twice. Thirty-five times he recorded multi-sack games including eight games with three or more sacks. Randle was elected to seven Pro Bowls (1994-99, 2002) and named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s.

Seahawks Career: Randle played his final three seasons in Seattle, leading the club in sacks twice and making one Pro Bowl. In 43 games with 35 starts, he collected 23.5 sacks.

Personal: Born on December 12, 1967, in Hearne, Texas.



JERRY RICE, WR

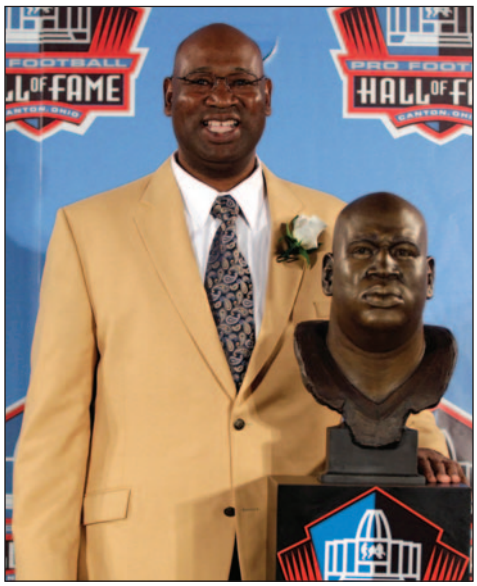
Pro Football Hall of Fame: Jerry Rice was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 6, 2010, along with Russ Grimm, Rickey Jackson, Dick LeBeau, Floyd Little, John Randle and Emmitt Smith. He was inducted on Saturday, August 7, 2010.

Pro Career: The San Francisco 49ers used their first round draft pick (16th overall) in 1985 on Jerry Rice from little known Mississippi Valley State. In 1986, Rice recorded a season that began perhaps the finest stretch by any receiver in NFL history. That year, he caught 86 passes for a league-leading 1,570 yards. He also led the NFL in touchdown catches with 15. It marked the first of 11 straight 1,000-yard seasons for Rice who also recorded double-digit receiving touchdown totals in nine of the next 10 seasons. The following year, Rice set the NFL record for touchdown receptions in a season with 22. His first of four seasons with 100 catches came in 1990 when he had an even 100 receptions to lead the NFL in that category. He led the NFL in receiving yards six times including an NFL record 1,848 yards in 1995. Rice also led the NFL in touchdown receptions six times. No wide receiver in NFL history played more than Rice's 20 seasons. By the time he retired after finishing his career with Oakland and Seattle, he was the most prolific wide receiver in NFL history with staggering career totals. He owns virtually every significant receiving mark. Some of the more notable career records include receptions (1,549); receiving yards (22,895 yards); most 1,000-yard receiving seasons (14); total touchdowns (208); and combined net yards (23,546). Rice has a hold on multiple NFL playoff and Super Bowl records. He played in eight conference championships and four Super Bowls. He earned three Super Bowl rings with the 49ers and was named the Most Valuable Player of San Francisco's Super Bowl XXIII win over the Cincinnati Bengals. Rice, who was named first-team All-Pro 11 consecutive seasons and voted to 13 Pro Bowls, is also a member of the NFL's All-Decade Teams of the 1980s and 1990s and NFL's 75th Anniversary Team.

Seahawks Career: Rice finished his career in Seattle, playing in 11 games with nine starts in 2004. He caught 24 passes for 362 yards with a long of 56 and three touchdowns.

Personal: Born on October 13, 1962, in Starkville, Miss.



CORTEZ KENNEDY, DT
1990-2000

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Cortez Kennedy was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 4, 2012, the day before Super Bowl XLVI. Kennedy was formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, August 4, along with Jack Butler, Dermontti Dawson, Chris Doleman, Curtis Martin and Willie Roaf. Kennedy follows only Steve Largent to enter the Hall of Fame representing the Seahawks. He was presented into the Hall of Fame by Dixie Fraley Keller, the widow of long-time agent, financial advisor and friend, Robert Fraley.

Pro Career: The Seattle Seahawks used the third overall selection of the 1990 NFL Draft on All-America defensive tackle Cortez Kennedy from the University of Miami. The move proved to be wise as Kennedy became a fixture on the Seahawks defensive line for 11 seasons. Extremely durable, he did not miss a single game until his eighth season. In his rookie season, Kennedy played in all 16 games, two of which were starts. He produced impressive numbers including a season-high 10 tackles and a sack against the Miami Dolphins. For his efforts, he was named to the NFL's All-Rookie team. The following season Kennedy moved into a full-time starting role at right defensive tackle for the Seahawks and responded by earning his first Pro Bowl berth. In 1992, despite the Seahawks finishing with a disappointing 2-14 record, Kennedy was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year. It marked just the third time in league history that a player from a losing team won the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year Award. He led Seattle that season with a career-high 14 sacks, the most of any interior lineman, and also recorded a career-best 92 tackles, recovered one fumble and batted down two passes. Although he was often double- or even triple-teamed Kennedy managed to lead or rank near the top in tackles each season. In 1996, he was voted to a team record sixth consecutive Pro Bowl and also was named the team's MVP and the winner of the Steve Largent Award given to the player that best exemplified the spirit, dedication and integrity of the Seahawks. He added two more Pro Bowls following the 1998 and 1999 seasons. Kennedy recorded one of his finest seasons in 1999. A 10-year veteran, he started all 16 games, recorded 73 tackles, 6.5 sacks and intercepted two passes to help the Seahawks reach the playoffs for the first time since 1988. In all, he registered 58 sacks, intercepted three passes and scored one touchdown on a fumble recovery during his 167-game career. He twice led the team in sacks (1992 and 1995). Aside from his eight Pro Bowls, Kennedy was named first-team All-NFL in 1992, 1993 and 1994, selected second-team All-Pro twice, All-AFC four times and was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s. On September 17, 2006, Kennedy became the 10th member inducted into the Seahawks Ring of Honor.

Seahawks Career: Kennedy ranks among the top-10 in many Seahawks categories, including: eighth in games played (167), seventh in games started (153), fourth in forced fumbles (13), tenth in tackles (668), fourth in sacks (58.0), fourth in sack yardage (392.0) and second in Pro Bowl nominations (8).

Personal: Born on August 23, 1968, Kennedy attended Northwest Mississippi Community College before transferring to Miami. Prepped at Rivercrest High School in Wilson, Ark. Kennedy passed away on May 23, 2017. He was survived by his parents, Joe and Ruby Harris, and daughter, Courtney.

WALTER JONES, T

Pro Football Hall of Fame: Walter Jones was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 1, 2014, the day before Seattle defeated Denver in Super Bowl XLVIII in New York/New Jersey. Jones was formally inducted in Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, August 2, along with Derrick Brooks, Ray Guy, Claude Humphrey, Andre Reed, Michael Strahan and Aeneas Williams. Jones joins Steve Largent and Cortez Kennedy to enter the Hall of Fame representing the Seahawks for their entire careers.

Pro Career: Jones retired from the NFL on April 29, 2010. In his honor, the team immediately retired his number 71 jersey and Governor Christine Gregoire declared the following day, Walter Jones Day, urging all citizens to join her in saluting his remarkable career. Since coming to Seattle as a first-round pick in 1997, Jones started all 180 games played while becoming the most dominant left tackle of his time. In 13 seasons, he was called for holding nine times and in 5,703 pass attempts, surrendered just 23 sacks according to coaches statistics. He was selected to nine Pro Bowls (1999, 2001-08), passing Cortez Kennedy for most in team history, and was also a six-time AP All-Pro (1st Team in 2001, 2004, 2005, 2007 and 2nd Team in 2006 and 2008). Seattle selected Jones with the sixth overall pick in the 1997 NFL Draft, which was acquired in a draft-day trade with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in exchange for Seattle's first-round pick (#12, RB Warrick Dunn) and third-round pick (#66, CB Ronde Barber). He was named to his first Pro Bowl following the 1999 season, becoming the first Seattle offensive lineman to accomplish that feat. Jones was part of the offensive line that helped Shaun Alexander to the fourth-best rushing game in NFL history with 266 yards vs. Oakland (11/11/01) and helped Alexander to an NFL-record five first-half touchdowns vs. Minnesota (9/29/02). PETE GROSS

Seasons	17 Seahawks Seasons (1976-92)
Born	December 28, 1936
Hometown	Whittier, California
Ring of Honor	November 30, 1992

Inducted into the Seahawks' Ring of Honor in 1992, Pete Gross served as the radio play-by-play for 17 seasons from the Seahawks' inaugural 1976 season through 1992. One of the most beloved people to have ever been associated with the Seahawks' franchise, fans will never forget his numerous "touchdown Seahawks" calls. Over his 17 seasons, Gross called all but the five games he missed in 1992 while battling cancer. His career included eight playoff games and in the 1983 season Gross came within one game of the Super Bowl when Seattle faced the Los Angeles Raiders in the AFC Championship Game. The Seahawks lost that game 30-14. Gross was diagnosed with cancer in 1989. He succumbed to the disease in 1992, just two days after his induction into the Ring. He was inducted into the Ring during a Monday night game versus the Denver Broncos, a game the 2-14 Seahawks won in overtime. Prior to moving to the Seahawks, he was the play-by-play voice of the University of Washington in both football and basketball. He came to Seattle after calling play-by-play for the University of the Pacific. Gross' legacy remains; the Seahawks are actively involved with the Pete Gross House. The Pete Gross House, which opened in November of 1999, is a 69-unit apartment complex that provides housing for families undergoing treatment at the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center. The Pete Gross House is also the location of the Hutch School, a fully accredited K through 12 school for cancer patients and their siblings. The Seahawks took an active roll in seeing the project through to completion and participate in an annual fundraiser for the continued upkeep of the facility.

Gross was inducted into the Seahawks' Ring of Honor during the Seahawks Monday night game versus the Denver Broncos. The Seahawks won the game and presented Gross with the game ball. Gross passed away three days later.

Immediately thrust into the Seahawks' lineup his rookie season, Warner would rush for 1,449 yards and 13 touchdowns highlighted by a then-Seahawks record 207-yard effort against Kansas City. The season was capped off by being named a starter in the Pro Bowl, 1983 AFC Player of the Year by the Washington D.C. Touchdown Club and NFLPA, AFC Offensive Player of the Year by the NFLPA and UPI, second-team All-NFL by the AP and Football Digest and first-team All-Rookie by Pro Football Digest and Pro Football Weekly. After suffering a season-ending injury in the first game of 1984, Curt would bounce back in 1985 rushing for 1,094 yards and being named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated. Warner would not look back his final three seasons leading the team in rushing each year, averaging 1,164 a season and 10 touchdowns, including a then-Seahawks record four touchdowns vs. Denver in 1988. Warner would be named to two more Pro Bowls (1986-87) bringing his career total to three, and was named AFC Offensive Player of the Year by the UPI in 1986, and first-team All-NFL by Sports Illustrated in 1987. He finished his career with 6,705 yards rushing on 1,649 carries with 62 touchdowns. Jacob Green became the second Seahawks defensive player to be inducted into the Ring of Honor on September 3, 1995. Green was a fixture at the left defensive end position for 11 years (1980-91). From the time the NFL made it an official statistic in 1982 until his retirement, Jacob was the third-most productive sack artist in the game, trailing only the likes of Lawrence Taylor and Reggie White. In 1983, Green registered a single-game Seahawks record 3.5 sacks against the Los Angeles Raiders, and the NFL's longest interception return for the season, a 73-yard touchdown at Cleveland. The following year, Green equaled a team-record four fumble recoveries and registered a then-playoff record 2.5 sacks in a Wild Card game against the Los Angeles Raiders. Green's career was highlighted by two Pro Bowl selections in 1986 and 1987. In 1986, he set a Seattle record with 4.0 sacks vs. the Giants. Green can be found scattered all over the Seahawks' record book having played in the fifth-most games (178), third-most starts (176), most fumble recoveries (17), fifth-most tackles (718), and most career sacks (116.0).

Kenny Easley was inducted into the Ring of Honor on October 14, 2002, with a sellout crowd and millions watching the Monday Night Football halftime ceremony at home and elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on February 4, 2017. Easley redefined the strong safety position in seven years from 1981-87. Voted by the Associated Press as the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1984, Easley had 32 interceptions in his storied career. This fierce hitter registered 107 tackles, three interceptions and returned an interception 82 yards vs. Cleveland in his rookie campaign, earning him AFC Rookie of the Year by the NFL Players' Association. The following season, Easley would earn the first of five Pro Bowl appearances, including being named a starter from 1983-85, and again in 1987. The crowning jewel of Easley's career came in 1984 where he spearheaded the NFL's sixth-rated defense that culminated into a Seahawks record 12 wins in the regular season and a Wild Card victory over the rival Los Angeles Raiders. He tied a Seahawks team record by intercepting 10 passes, including three against San Diego on October 29. Easley would be named first-team All-NFL by the Associated Press for the second year in a row and was bestowed that honor again in 1985. Easley finished his career with 498 tackles, eight sacks, 10 forced fumbles, 11 fumble recoveries, and 32 interceptions.

Dave Krieg became the eighth member of the Seahawks' Ring of Honor on September 26, 2004. Krieg spent the first 12 years (1980-91) of his 19-year NFL playing career with the Seahawks while becoming the club's all-time leader in 31 career, season and single-game passing categories at the time of his departure. Krieg originally joined the Seahawks as an undrafted free agent from Milton College in 1980, and became the regular starter nine games into the 1983 season. The three-time Pro Bowler (1984, 1988 and 1989) was the only Seattle quarterback with a playoff victory and led the Seahawks to their only conference championship game in 1983, a club-record 12 wins and the playoffs in 1984, and back-to-back playoff appearances again in 1987 and 1988, since matched and surpassed by Matt Hasselbeck and Russell Wilson.

Ring of Honor	September 25, 2005

Chuck Knox was the ninth member inducted to the Ring. He spent nine of his 22 illustrious seasons at the helm of the Seahawks from 1983-91, during which time he led Seattle to 80 wins en route to becoming the winningest coach in club history, since surpassed by Mike Holmgren and Pete Carroll. Compared to 63 losses, his winning percentage of .559 is third among Seattle coaches with at least eight games coached. Knox posted six winning seasons with Seattle and led the Seahawks into postseason play four times. The Seahawks' three playoff wins under Knox were the only postseason wins in club history until 2005. Knox was named NFL Coach of the Year following both the 1983 and 1984 seasons, where Seattle posted a 21-11 record, advanced to the 1983 AFC Championship Game and in 1984 posted the best record in franchise history at the time with a 12-4 mark. One of the NFL's all-time winningest coaches, Knox ranks 10th in league history with 193 career victories (193-158), including playoffs. He was the first coach in NFL history to lead three different franchises to the playoffs and was named NFL Coach of the Year four times while coaching three different teams (L.A. Rams-1973, Bills-1980, Seahawks-1983-84).

Walter Jones was the 11th member inducted in to the Ring of Honor, and the 10th player chosen. Since coming to Seattle as a first-round pick in 1997, Jones started all 180 games played while becoming the most dominant left tackle of his time. In 13 seasons, he was called for holding nine times and in 5,703 pass attempts, surrendered just 23 sacks according to coaches statistics. He was selected to nine Pro Bowls (1999, 2001-08), passing Cortez Kennedy for most in team history, and was also a six-time AP All-Pro (1st Team in 2001, 2004, 2005, 2007 and 2nd Team in 2006 and 2008). Seattle selected Jones with the sixth overall pick in the 1997 NFL Draft, which was acquired in a draft-day trade with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in exchange for Seattle's first-round pick (#12, RB Warrick Dunn) and third-round pick (#66, CB Ronde Barber). Jones ranks fourth in Seattle history in games played (180) and second in games started (180). He became the first Seahawks player to reach double-digits in postseason appearances and was inducted in to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2, 2014.

CHAIRMAN
PAUL G. ALLEN

Seasons	22 Seahawks Seasons (1997-18)
Born	January 21, 1953
College	Washington State
Hometown	Seattle, Washington
Ring of Honor	October 3, 2019

Paul G. Allen was inducted to the Seahawks Ring of Honor on October 3, 2019. Allen, who passed away in October 2018 due to complications of non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, was the 12th member of the Ring of Honor. Under Allen's guidance, the Seahawks achieved new levels of success over two decades, first under head coach Mike Holmgren, who was one of Allen's most important early hires, and then under Pete Carroll and John Schneider, who Allen brought together in 2010. Prior to Allen purchasing the team, the Seahawks had eight winning seasons, won 10 or more games twice, earned four playoff berths, won their division once and advanced to one AFC championship game. During Allen's ownership from 1997-2018, the Seahawks reached the postseason 13 times, won nine division titles, enjoyed nine seasons with 10 or more wins, and played in three Super Bowls, winning Super Bowl XLVIII to bring the Lombardi Trophy to Seattle for the first time. In addition to owning the Seahawks and the Portland Trail Blazers, Allen was a technology pioneer who co-founded Microsoft, then later launched Vulcan, Inc., Stratolaunch Systems, the Allen Institute and the Allen Institute for Artificial Intelligence. He was a philanthropist and conservationist who used his considerable wealth and influence to make a difference in so many ways around the world, giving more than $2.5 billion to causes near and dear to his heart; he enriched Seattle's art and music scene while also playing a mean guitar himself; he made amazing discoveries at the bottoms of oceans; he rebuilt Seattle's South Lake Union neighborhood, and did so much more to make the Seattle area and the world a better and more interesting place.

HEAD COACH
MIKE HOLMGREN

Seasons	10 Seahawks Seasons (1999-2008)
Born	June 15, 1948
College	USC
Hometown	San Francisco, California
Ring of Honor	October 31, 2021

Mike Holmgren was the 14th member inducted in to the Ring of Honor, and second head coach chosen. He was announced as Executive Vice President of Football Operations/General Manager & Head Coach on January 8, 1999. He built Seattle in to a perennial winner and Super Bowl contender to begin the decade. He acquired Matt Hasselbeck, drafted Hall of Fame guard Steve Hutchinson to team with Hall of Fame tackle Walter Jones, drafted league MVP running back Shaun Alexander, and starting wide receivers Darrell Jackson and Koren Robinson. His defenses featured John Randle, Chad Brown, Marcus Trufant, Ken Hamlin and Lofa Tatupu. The Seahawks won five division titles (1999, 2004-07), had a winning record in seven of his 10 seasons, with six playoff appearances and three 10-win seasons. In the previous 23 seasons before Holmgren's arrival, Seattle had a winning record eight times, won one division title, with four playoff appearances and two 10-win seasons. He was the winningest Seattle head coach with a 90-80 combined record (regular & postseason) at the time of his departure. His teams recorded five consecutive winning seasons (2003-07) for the first time in franchise history and set the club's single-season record with 11 consecutive victories in 2005. Holmgren is one of five head coaches to take two different teams to a Super Bowl and win at least one title, and became the first coach in NFL history to record 75 or more wins with two franchises (Green Bay). Voted on by the Professional Football Writers of America, Holmgren was named the 2007 Horrigan Award Winner, given to the person (not a player or team media relations member) who helped the media best do its job during the season, and was the 2008 recipient of the Largent Award.

A TRADITION CONTINUES

In 2003, the 12s were honored once again, this time with a flag. The tradition of the 12 Flag began October 12, 2003, when 12 original season ticket holders hoisted the flag vs. the San Francisco 49ers. Now, at every home game just before kickoff, the flag is raised in honor of the 12s. From former Seahawks Legends, to local celebrities and sports personalities, being called upon to raise the flag has become an honor within itself. The flag has become a symbol of Seahawks supporters all over the Northwest and the spirit of community that the organization and fans share.

SEAHAWKS DANCERS

Seahawks Dancers Director Courtney Moore

The Seahawks Dancers are the official dance group of the Seahawks, balancing a busy schedule of practicing, performing and making public appearances in the community throughout the year. Formerly known as the Sea Gals, the group was re-named the Seahawks Dancers in 2019 to reflect an overall evolution of the group as it focuses on greater diversity in performances and performers. The team is made up of a mix of female and male dancers specializing in NFL jazz/pom style dance, as well as NFL hip hop.

Courtney Moore was named Seahawks Dancers Director in 2018 and has been involved with the dance team since 2008 as a squad member (2008-15) and choreographer (2015-18). The 2023 season will be her sixth as director. Former dancers Melissa Hornberger, Carli Brockman, and Jackie Ablao continue as assistants to the program in management and choreography.

In addition to numerous practices and gameday performances, the Seahawks Dancers are heavily involved in the community and spend many hours supporting numerous local charities and organizations as part of the Seahawks community engagement program. For over 30 years, the Seahawks Dancers have held an annual fundraising event to provide Christmas gifts for the women and children living at a local women's shelter. The money raised by the squad was donated to Broadview Women and Children's Shelter, and New Beginnings, another organization that supports victims of domestic violence.

The Junior Seahawks Dancers group has become a popular program for kids ages seven to 14 and is coming back for both clinics and halftime this season. The ELITE program will also return for its second season. ELITES are a small group selected from the Juniors that complete a six month program with the Seahawks Dancers as well as perform at two in-season games. The current team's dancers work directly with these young girls and boys to develop character, team building and dance skills.

The Seahawks Dancers "Show Group" performs a variety show that includes colorful costume changes, character dance routines, singing and crowd participation. The group has performed across the United States, Middle East, Africa, the South Pacific, and European military bases.

Fans can learn more about the squad at seahawks.com/dancers.

LUMEN FIELD

In 1996, Paul G. Allen obtained an option to purchase the Seattle Seahawks and launched a campaign to win public support for a new world-class football/soccer stadium and exhibition center. Six years later, the dream became reality as the Seahawks opened the 2002 preseason against the Indianapolis Colts in Seahawks Stadium, renamed Qwest Field on June 2, 2004. After seven seasons, the stadium was renamed CenturyLink Field on June 23, 2011, and later rebranded to Lumen Field on November 19, 2020.

The Lumen Field stadium complex includes Lumen Field, the 325,000 sq. ft. Lumen Field Event Center and WAMU Theater. The stadium complex hosts a wide variety and volume of events each year, making it one of the busiest venues in the region. In addition to the NFL's Seattle Seahawks and MLS' Seattle Sounders FC, the National Women's Soccer League's OL Reign and the XFL's Seattle Sea Dragons call Lumen Field home. The stadium also hosts events such as consumer and trade shows, corporate events, Monster Jam, Supercross, and full stadium concerts. In 2022, it was announced that Lumen Field would be a host venue for the 2026 FIFA World Cup.

Sustainability accomplishments:

- An average of 90% of the waste created at Lumen Field is diverted from the landfill through recycling, composting and donations. Waste tracking began in 2006 when the facility recorded a diversion rate of 4.66%.
- Lumen Field's local partners include more than 50 farmers, ranchers, fishing companies, bakers, and other food purveyors whose practices are ethical and sustainable – supporting economic development within our vibrant, local farming and culinary communities which also helps to decrease the stadium's carbon footprint.
- In 2023, First & Goal Inc. and Levy introduced reusable cups in the WAMU Theater, helping to decrease waste and carbon footprint.
- In 2022, in an effort to increase waste diversion, Lumen Field invested in a customized sorting system called the MRFi. This technology speeds up the process of sorting, which is the key to a successful diversion program.
- In 2021, Lumen Field and the Seahawks were a founding partner of PLAY, a recognition and sustainability performance toolkit powered by ARC, in collaboration with the Green Sports Alliance.
- During the field replacement project in 2019, 488 tons of rubber and sand were recycled, and all the carpet was repurposed, ensuring that 100% of the project was diverted from the landfill.

FIRST & GOAL INC.

In June of 1997, Washington State voters approved a funding package to build a new football/soccer stadium and exhibition center. With that, Paul G. Allen and Football Northwest created First & Goal Inc., to manage the stadium and event center on a daily basis.

FIRST & GOAL HOSPITALITY & LEVY

The Seattle Seahawks and First & Goal Inc. created First & Goal Hospitality (FGH) in 2017 as a local Seattle company focused exclusively on delivering the best food experience to fans and guests at Lumen Field. In 2020, the Seahawks announced that FGH had partnered with Levy, the market leader in defining hospitality at major sports and entertainment venues and events, to manage operations at all facilities at Lumen Field. Under the partnership, FGH continues to be the banner for hospitality during events at Lumen Field, Lumen Field Event Center, and WAMU Theater, while Levy manages day-to-day operations with its industry-leading operational resources and expertise.

LUMEN FIELD FUNDING

The $430 million facility is owned by the public and was funded by a private-public partnership. Private contributions totaled at least $130 million, while the public contributed up to $300 million through a lottery and a variety of taxes generated by events in the stadium/exhibition center.

A breakdown of the funding package:

- $130 million private investment led by Paul G. Allen
- $127 million from new, sports related lottery games, similar to the Mariners' baseball-themed scratch games
- $101 million in sales taxes collected in King County attributable to events in the stadium/event center
- $56 million from facility admission and parking taxes
- $15 million from extending King County's share of the existing hotel-motel tax
- Paul G. Allen agreed to pay for any construction cost overruns
- $1 million per year of in-kind advertising for the new lottery games will be provided by Paul G. Allen
- All excess stadium revenues will fund youth athletic facilities throughout Washington State in addition to a $10 million contribution from Paul G. Allen
- $14 million of the public contribution will come from interest earned on the $50 million private contribution from Paul G. Allen
- As an added measure, the debt on the Kingdome was retired, freeing property taxes for other purposes

VIRGINIA MASON ATHLETIC CENTER

The Seahawks moved into the 200,000 square foot waterfront facility in August 2008. The property is bounded by Interstate 405 to the east, Lake Washington to the west, residential property to the north and 44th Street to the south.

The privately funded practice facility is situated on 19 acres of industrial property. It houses a permanent indoor practice facility, and the team's entire front office. In addition, there are three outdoor practice fields, 50,000 square feet of training facility space, 15,000 square feet of player meeting space and 48,000 square feet of administrative office space. Virginia Mason Athletic Center allows fans to watch practice during training camp.

Purchased by Vulcan Real Estate in 2000, the land was formerly home to a coal tar refinery & creosote plant, since remediated by Vulcan in concert with the City of Renton and the Washington State Department of Ecology. The project will improve the environmental climate of Renton and its wetlands by improving and redeveloping the site. Since the team's inaugural season in 1976, the Seahawks were housed at Carillon Point for 10.5 years from 1976-86.

KINGDOME

The Kingdome was originally located on 35.9 acres. Due to construction of the new parking garage and event center the acreage converted to 23.9 acres.

The Kingdome had the largest concrete roof in the world - 7.85 acres. A new roof and ceiling was completed in 1994. The new ceiling had improved acoustics through the use of a spray on cellulose material.

The building itself, contained 52,800 cubic yards of concrete and 443 tons of structural steel.

It was 250 feet high and 660 feet across to the inside walls making it wider than the Space Needle is tall.

The Kingdome hosted football, soccer, baseball, basketball, tennis, volleyball, rodeos, motor sports, concerts, meetings and trade & consumer shows of all types.

The Kingdome boasted the 43rd largest facility exhibition space in North America.

More than 72 million people entered the Kingdome through a variety of entertainment over 23 years.

Over 3,250 major events were held and many hundreds of smaller special events.

The largest event attendance at the Kingdome was 74,000, set on May 14, 1976 during a Billy Graham Crusade.

Original cost, including property, was $67 million; another $47 million in capital improvements was added over the years. The remaining debt on both the original cost and capital improvements was $57 million.

The roof and ceiling renovation was $70 million. The total debt on the Kingdome was $127 million with the debt retired in March 2015.

Annual payments of $6.3 million are received from a two-percent hotel/motel room tax and a one-percent rental car tax. This pays for the original construction, the roof and ceiling repair and millions of dollars in improvements.

The stadium employed 70 full-time staff and up to 1,200 part-time event personnel. At one point, the Kingdome was home to four professional sports- baseball, football, basketball and soccer (Seattle Sounders).

The Kingdome was imploded on March 26, 2000.

HUSKY STADIUM

The Seattle Seahawks played their entire 2000 and 2001 home schedule at Husky Stadium. With the demolition of the Kingdome and creation of the new football stadium, the Seahawks looked to the home of the Washington Huskies for the 2000 and 2001 NFL seasons.

Seating capacity at Husky Stadium for Seahawks games was 68,589, with nearly 70 percent of those seats between the endzones.

The Seahawks played three regular season and two preseason games at the stadium in 1994, when ceiling tiles fell from the Kingdome's roof.

Built in 1902 at a cost of $600,000, the stadium's initial capacity was 30,000. The stadium officially opened on November 27, 1920, when Dartmouth defeated the University of Washington, 28-7.

Capacity was increased to 40,000 in 1936 and again to 55,000 in 1950. The second of these upgrades included roof-covered seats in the south stands and cost $1.7 million. The suspended press box was originally constructed as part of the 1950 expansion.

An additional 4,000 seats were added in 1968, to take capacity to 59,000.

Husky Stadium became just the second stadium to don AstroTurf, when it replaced the original natural grass in 1968. The University of Washington supplied more than 200 pairs of shoes for opponents, due to the rarity of the surface. The turf was replaced in 1972, 1977, 1987, 1995, and new FieldTurf was laid down in 2000. Seating capacity increased one more time in 1987, in a $13

FORMER KIRKLAND HEADQUARTERS

From June 18, 1986, through training camp of 2008, the Seattle Seahawks office and training headquarters was located adjacent to Northwest University in Kirkland.

The two-story building went through major renovation that was completed in 1999, to create a first-class facility. The lower-level housed meeting rooms, locker rooms for the players and coaches, training and equipment rooms as well as an expanded strength and conditioning area.

Upstairs housed the administrative offices, coaches offices, and conference rooms. The Seahawks were able to practice on three regulation fields, two natural grass and one artificial turf. The original turf field was replaced by a new one in 1997. That field was then covered by an inflatable bubble as the weather worsened.
